PREFACE

This fifty-eighth Annual Report on the Texas Judicial System presents the court activity of the more than 2,500 courts in the State of Texas, state, county, and city, and is intended to inform the general public, and the legislative and executive branches of state government, of the accomplishments of the judicial branch during the period of September 1, 1985 through August 31, 1986. It is prepared by the staff of the state Office of Court Administration and submitted under the auspices of the Texas Judicial Council, pursuant to the statutory duty of the Council:

> The council continuously shall study the organization, rules, procedures and practice, work accomplished, results, and uniformity of the discretionary powers of the state courts and methods for their improvement.
> (Section 71.031, Tex. Gov't. Code)

This report includes information on the basic structure and organization of the Texas Judiciary; detailed reports, summaries and analyses of the activities of the various levels of courts comprising the judicial system; reports on the activities of judicial agencies as required by law; and directories of judges and clerks.

ACKNOWLEDGEMENT

Acknowledgement and appreciation is extended to the many judges and clerks of the courts who have so promptly submitted the monthly reports on court operations. Without their efforts, publication of this report would not be possible and the citizens of the State would be deprived of necessary information on the statewide activities of the Judicial Branch of Government. We particularly wish to recognize the interest and support of the Presiding Judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions and their Administrative Assistants in this regard on a statewide basis.

Special acknowledgement is due to Court of Appeals Justice Ben Z. Grant, retiring President of the Texas Judicial Council, and to Court of Appeals Justice Joe E. Spurlock II, the newly-elected President of the Council, for their continuing aid and support. Supreme Court Chief Justice John L. Hill, Jr., Vice President of the Council, Court of Criminal Appeals Presiding Judge John F. Onion, Jr., Secretary of the Council, and the members of the Judicial Council are due particular recognition for their personal time and dedication to the administration of justice in Texas.

TEXAS JUDICIAL COUNCIL

1414 Colorado, Suite 602 • P.O. Box 12066 • Austin, Texas 78711 • 512/463-1625

TO THE GOVERNOR, MEMBERS OF THE 70TH LEGISLATURE, AND CITIZENS OF THE STATE OF TEXAS:

I am pleased to submit to you the 58th Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council. This Report summarizes the activities and operations of more than 2,500 courts in the State of Texas for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1986.

The judges and clerks of the various courts are the originators of the data contained here. Their tireless efforts of record-keeping and reporting are the backbone of the system. The Director and staff of the Office of Court Administration are to be commended for their collecting and accurately summarizing the tremendous volume of reported data. Without their hard work we would not have any repository of information to look to in analyzing our judicial system.

To determine whether or not they enjoy an efficient court system, the citizens of Texas look not at these statistics, but at the amount of delay at the courthouse. If delays are unduly long, this Annual Report can be an invaluable tool to assist legislators, scholars, jurists, politicians, and citizens alike in analyzing where the delays occur, and to understand why. Most Texans believe we have a strong judiciary, and that the many institutions and courts that make up our judicial system are fair, efficiently operated, and responsive to the needs of the citizens of Texas. This Report supports their beliefs.

For this and many past years, the Honorable Ben Z. Grant of Marshall, Texas, has served as Council President. Justice Grant has had a distinguished career as a member of the Texas House of Representatives, as a district judge, and as President of the Judicial Council. He now serves Texas as a Justice on the Texarkana Court of Appeals. The Council is deeply indebted to Ben Grant for his past service and will sorely miss his counsel and leadership in the future.

It is my hope that the information contained in this Report will help the Legislature in its awesome task this year of budgetary crisis. Texas has in the past enjoyed a good judicial system which has been constantly improved, and annually made more efficient. Texas needs to continue to provide for its citizens the same quality of judicial system as in the past.

I commend this Report to all Texans who are engaged in the effort to help Texas progress.

Respectfully submitted,

Joe Spurlock

Joe Spurlock II

COURT STRUCTURE OF TEXAS
Descriptive Outline
September 1, 1986

The appellate courts of Texas include a Supreme Court, a Court of Criminal Appeals, and 14 intermediate Courts of Appeals.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts. Additionally, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county, presided over by a county judge. To relieve the docket congestion of this single "constitutional" county court, the Legislature has established county courts at law and probate courts in populous counties.

The Constitution also provides for justice of the peace courts in each county. These justice courts also serve as small claims courts. The Legislature has established municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State.

DISTRICT COURTS

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 374.

2. JURISDICTION: There are 374 separate district courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own geographical jurisdiction. The Legislature has created one additional court, effective 1-1-87. At present, each district court has one judge, but a constitutional amendment effective in November 1985 allows the Legislature to establish more than one judge per court. In a number of areas, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

   District courts are trial courts of general subject-matter jurisdiction. Beginning November 1985, they have "exclusive, appellate, and original jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings, and remedies, except in cases where exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction may be conferred by (the) Constitution or other law on some other court...." Generally, this jurisdiction includes original jurisdiction of felony criminal prosecutions, suits for divorce, suits over title to land, election contests, civil suits with an amount in controversy of at least $500.

   County courts at law and constitutional county courts also exercise limited subject-matter jurisdiction over civil suits and thus, to a limited extent, share jurisdiction with the district courts. Individual statutes stipulate maximum amounts in controversy over which each county-level court may exercise jurisdiction. To the extent that such "dollar amount" jurisdiction coincides with the district court, the two courts have concurrent jurisdiction. Such concurrent jurisdiction of the district and county-level courts begins with suits involving $500 and extends to the maximum amount stipulated by the applicable statute pertaining to the individual county-level court. Above such maximum jurisdictional amount of the county-level court, the district court exercises exclusive jurisdiction.

   The district courts hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, these courts have general original jurisdiction over all causes of action for which a remedy or jurisdiction is not provided by law or by the Constitution, and have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

   Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law cases. In some instances, the courts that hear criminal cases exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also have the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

   Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Courts of Appeals, except those capital offense cases in which the death penalty has been assessed, which are appealed directly to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

3. SEATS: At the county seat of each county included in each respective geographical district.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan, district-wide elections. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the Senate.
   c. Qualifications: Citizen of the United States and of Texas; resident of the district for two years; licensed to practice law in Texas and a practicing lawyer or judge for four years.

d. Salaries paid by the State:
   Effective 9-1-85.........$56,135
   Effective 9-1-86.........$56,135
   Supplements authorized by statute may be paid by counties. Total salary must be $1,000 less than that received by justices of the Courts of Appeals serving the same geographical area.

e. Term: Four years.

"CONSTITUTIONAL" COUNTY COURTS

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 254.

2. JURISDICTION:
   a. Legal jurisdiction: The Texas Constitution establishes one county court in each of the 254 counties of the State, but not all such courts exercise judicial functions. In populous counties, the "county judge" may devote full time to managing county government.

   An amendment effective November 1985 repealed all expressed constitutional jurisdiction for the county courts and provides that they have jurisdiction "as provided by law."

   By statute, (Sec. 26.042, Government Code) constitutional county courts have juvenile jurisdiction and concurrent civil jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in cases in which the matter in controversy exceeds $200 but does not exceed $1,000, exclusive of interest. County courts have the general jurisdiction of a probate court (Sec. 4, Probate Code), and they have exclusive original jurisdiction of misdemeanors where the fine allowed exceeds $200 or where a jail sentence may be imposed (Sec. 26.045, Government Code).

   Decisions from the municipal and justice of the peace courts may be appealed to the county court, and the appeal takes the form of a completely new trial (trial de novo). Appeals from municipal courts of record are an exception, where the county court reviews only the written record from the trial. Original and appellate judgments of the county court may be appealed to the Court of Appeals, with certain limitations.

   In addition to these general grants of statutory jurisdiction, many constitutional county courts are granted additional jurisdiction by statutory provisions which apply only to those courts (see Secs. 26.101 to 26.354, Government Code).

   b. Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

3. SEATS: County seat of county of jurisdiction.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: County-wide, partisan election with vacancies between elections filled by county commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: "Shall be well informed in the law of the State." (Law license unnecessary.)
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

NOTE: The commissioners court is not a judicial entity; rather it is the governing body of the county. It is presided over by the constitutional county judge and includes four elected commissioners. Although it performs no judicial duties, the commissioners court can issue certain writs and contempt citations.

COUNTY COURTS AT LAW

1. NUMBER OF COURTS: 158.

2. JURISDICTION:
   a. Legal jurisdiction: Under the constitutional provision which authorizes the Legislature to establish such other courts as it may deem necessary and to prescribe the jurisdiction of such courts, the Legislature has established 158 statutory county courts at law in 65 counties, primarily in metropolitan areas, to relieve the constitutional county judge of all or part of his judicial duties.

   The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably according to the statute under which they are created. Some of these courts are intended to exercise subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts). The concurrent civil jurisdiction of these statutory courts with the district court extends to greater amounts in controversy than the constitutional county courts.

   b. Geographical jurisdiction: County-wide.

3. SEATS: County seat of county of jurisdiction.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: County-wide, partisan election with vacancies between elections filed by county commissioners.
   c. Qualifications: Vary according to court-creation statute. Some include two to five years' experience as practicing attorney and requirement of residence in county.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

1. NUMBER OF ACTIVE COURTS: 954.

2. JURISDICTION: As amended in November 1983, the Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided (depending upon the population) into at least one, and not more than eight justice precincts. In each such precinct, one justice of the peace is to be elected, provided that if the precinct includes a city of 18,000 or more inhabitants, two justices of the peace are to be elected from such precinct.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in misdemeanor criminal cases when punishment is by fine only. They have exclusive jurisdiction over civil cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or less; concurrent jurisdiction with county courts when the amount is more than $200 but less than $500; and concurrent jurisdiction with both the county and district courts when the amount is at least $500 but less than $1,000. By statute, they are granted jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer actions.

A justice of the peace may issue warrants of search and arrest, conduct preliminary hearings, serve as ex officio notary public, perform marriages, and serve as coroner in counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner. The justice court also functions as a small claims court.

3. SEATS: Determined by county commissioners.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: One judge per court.
   b. Selection: Partisan elections by voters of respective precincts.
   c. Qualifications: No specific statutory or constitutional provisions apply.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the county. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Four years.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

1. NUMBER OF ACTIVE COURTS: 847.

2. JURISDICTION: By a general statute, the Legislature has created a municipal court in each of the incorporated cities of the State. Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 847 cities and towns. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court.

These courts do not have civil jurisdiction, but they have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violation of city ordinances. Ordinance violations involving litter, fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation, are punishable by fines only, up to a maximum of $1,000. Punishment for violation of other types of city ordinances is limited to fines only, not to exceed $200. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws within the city limits (predominately traffic offenses) when punishment is limited to fines only of $200 or less. Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State.

Generally, municipal courts are not courts of record, and appeals from them are by trial de novo in the county court, county court at law or district court. The municipal courts of Austin, El Paso, Houston, Longview, Lubbock, Marshall, Midland, San Antonio, Sweetwater, and Wichita Falls are courts of record, and appeals from these courts are on the record made therein.

3. SEATS: Determined by the city or town.

4. MEMBERSHIP:
   a. Number: Generally, one court per municipality and one judge per court. Statutes allow some city governing bodies to establish more than one court and/or more than one judge per court.
   b. Selection: Elected or appointed by the governing body of the city as provided by city charter or ordinance.
   c. Qualifications: Determined by the governing body of the city.
   d. Salaries: Paid entirely by the city. Highly variable.
   e. Term: Most are appointed for two-year terms and serve at the will of the governing body of the city.

TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM
Subject-Matter Jurisdiction of the Courts
September 1, 1986

INTRODUCTION

The basic structure of the present court system of Texas was established by an 1891 constitutional amendment. The amendment established the Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court for civil matters, and the Court of Criminal Appeals, which makes the final determination in criminal matters. There are now fourteen intermediate Courts of Appeals which, since September 1, 1981, exercise intermediate appellate jurisdiction in both civil and criminal cases. Prior to that date, these courts had jurisdiction in intermediate civil appellate cases only.

The state trial courts of general jurisdiction are the district courts, of which there are 374 as of September 1, 1986. (Ten of these courts are designated "Criminal District Courts.")

The geographical area served by each district court is established by the specific statute creating that court and does not necessarily correspond to the area served by any previously-established court. Each court has one judge, although, by constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) effective in November 1985, future Legislatures may provide for more than one district judge per court. The State pays the base salary of each judge and some limited expenses of the judge.

In addition to these state courts, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county, presided over by the county judge. The county judge also serves as head of the county commissioners court, the governing body of the county. To relieve the docket of the single "constitutional" county court, the Legislature has established statutory county courts at law in 65 counties. As of September 1, 1986, there are 12 probate courts and 146 county courts at law in operation. Seven additional courts have been authorized by the Legislature but were not effective as of September 1, 1986.

The Texas Constitution provides for not less than one nor more than 16 justices of the peace in each county. Today there are approximately 950 justice of the peace courts statewide. Since 1953, these courts have also served as small claims courts.

By statute, the Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city in the State. These courts have original jurisdiction over violations of municipal ordinances and concurrent criminal jurisdiction with the justice of the peace courts over state law violations, limited to the geographical confines of the municipality. Municipal courts do not have civil jurisdiction.

Trials in the justice of the peace and municipal courts (with 10 exceptions) are not of record, and appeals therefrom are by trial de novo to the county court, except in certain counties as noted later where the appeal is to a county court at law or to a district court. When an appeal is by trial de novo, the case is tried again in the higher court, just as if the original trial had not occurred.

Jurisdiction of the various levels of courts is established both by constitutional provision and by statute. Statutory jurisdiction of the courts is established by general statutes providing jurisdiction for all courts on a particular level, as well as by the statutes establishing individual courts. Thus, to determine the jurisdiction of any one particular court, recourse must be had first to the Constitution, second to the general statutes establishing jurisdiction for that level of court, third to the specific statute authorizing the establishment of the particular court in question, fourth to statutes creating other courts in the same county (whose jurisdictional provisions may affect the court in question), and fifth to statutes dealing with specific subject matters (such as the Family Code, which requires, for example, that judges who are lawyers hear appeals from actions by non-lawyer judges in juvenile cases.)

The State provides full funding for the Supreme Court, the Court of Criminal Appeals, and the Court of Appeals located in Austin. It provides a base salary for the appellate and district judges of Texas. Most counties supplement this base salary for district and Court of Appeals judges. Counties pay the costs of "constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, justice of the peace courts, and the operating costs of district courts except for the base salary of the judge. The cities finance the operation of municipal courts.

Senate Bill 797 of the 69th Legislature, the general appropriations bill, appropriated $59.7 million for the operations of the Texas judiciary -- including the Judicial Retirement System -- in fiscal year 1986. This represents only 0.33 of one percent of the $18.3 billion total state budget for fiscal year 1986.

APPELLATE COURTS

The appellate courts of the Texas Judicial System are: (1) the Supreme Court, which is the highest state appellate court for civil and juvenile cases; (2) the Court of Criminal Appeals, which is the highest state appellate court for criminal cases; and (3) the 14 Courts of Appeals, which are the intermediate appellate courts for both civil and criminal appeals from the trial-level courts.

Appellate courts do not try cases, have jurors, or hear witnesses. Rather, they review actions and decisions of the lower courts on questions of law or allegations of procedural error. In carrying out this review, the appellate courts are usually restricted to the evidence and exhibits presented in the trial court.

The Supreme Court

The Supreme Court of Texas was first established by the Constitution of the Republic of Texas, which vested the judicial power of the Republic in "...one Supreme Court and such inferior courts as the Congress may establish." This Court was re-established by each successive constitution adopted throughout the course of Texas history. The various constitutions and amendments thereto, however, provided for different numbers of judges to sit on the Court and different methods for the selection of the judges. The Constitution of 1845 provided that the Supreme Court consist of a Chief Justice and two associate justices. The Constitution of 1866 provided for five justices, and the Constitution of 1869 reverted to a three-judge court; the Constitution of 1873 increased the number to five, and the Constitution of 1876 again reduced the membership to three. To aid the three justices in disposing of the ever increasing workload, the Legislature created two "Commissions of Appeals," each to consist of three judges appointed by the Supreme Court. This system, begun in 1920, continued until the adoption of the constitutional amendment of 1945 which abolished the two Commissions of Appeals and increased the number of justices on the Supreme Court to nine, the present number.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides:

> The Supreme Court shall exercise the judicial power of the state except as otherwise provided in this Constitution. Its jurisdiction shall be co-extensive with the limits of the State and its determinations shall be final except in criminal law matters. Its appellate jurisdiction shall be final and shall extend to all cases except in criminal law matters and as otherwise provided in this Constitution or by law.

Thus, the Supreme Court of Texas has statewide final appellate jurisdiction in most civil and juvenile cases. In cases of slander, divorce, and certain other civil matters, the opinion of the Court of Appeals is usually final. The Supreme Court is empowered to make and enforce all necessary rules of civil practice and procedure for the judicial system and to promulgate rules of administration to provide for the efficient administration of justice in the State. A constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 10) passed in November 1985 and effective January 1, 1986, gives the Supreme Court (and the Court of Criminal Appeals) jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from a federal appellate court. The Supreme Court has original jurisdiction to issue writs and to conduct proceedings for the involuntary retirement or removal of judges in the State.

The Supreme Court is composed of one Chief Justice and eight justices, who are elected in partisan elections on a state-wide basis for six-year terms of office. Vacancies between elections are filled by gubernatorial appointment with the advice and consent of the State Senate, until the next general election. To be eligible to serve as a justice of this Court, a person must be licensed to practice law in this State, be a citizen of the United States and of the State of Texas, be at least 35 years of age, and have been a practicing lawyer, or a lawyer and judge of a court of record together, for at least ten years.

In addition to its major responsibilities of hearing oral arguments, deciding cases appealed to it, and writing opinions, the Supreme Court has many administrative duties placed upon it by the Legislature to ensure the efficient administration of justice by the Texas judicial system. These duties include: (1) promulgating the Rules of Civil Procedure for the Texas judicial system (Gov't Code §22.004); (2) promulgating rules of administration for the Texas judicial system (art. 200a-1, and Gov't Code §72.026); (3) equalizing the dockets between the 14 Courts of Appeals (Gov't Code §73.001); (4) promulgating the rules of procedure for the Commission on Judicial Conduct, and disciplining or removing judges from office (art. V, sec. 1-a, Tex. Const.); (5) supervising the operations of the State Bar of Texas and the rules and regulations for the admission, discipline, supervision, and disbarment of lawyers, and approving the law schools of the State (arts. 304, 306, 320a-1); and (6) promulgating the rules for the operation of the Court Reporters Certification Board and the disciplinary rules enforced by this Board (Gov't Code §52.002).

The Chief Justice has the responsibility to: (1) confer with the presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions to promote the prompt dispatch of judicial business (art. 200a-1, and Gov't Code §74.014); (2) assign judges between administrative judicial districts (art. 200a-1, and Gov't Code §74.034); (3) assign retired appellate justices to the various Courts of Appeals on a temporary basis (art. 200a-1 and Gov't Code §73.012); (4) deliver a "State of the Judiciary" message at the commencement of each regular session of the Legislature (Gov't Code §21.004); and (5) ensure that the Supreme Court executes and implements its administrative duties and responsibilities (art. 200a-1 and Gov't Code §72.026).

The Court of Criminal Appeals

To relieve the Supreme Court of some of its caseload, the Constitution of 1876 created the Court of Appeals, composed of three elected judges, with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in those civil cases tried by the county courts. The judiciary article that was created by the constitutional amendment of 1891 changed the name of this court to the Court of Criminal Appeals and limited its jurisdiction to appellate jurisdiction in criminal cases only.

A constitutional amendment adopted in 1980 provides: "The Court of Criminal Appeals shall have final appellate jurisdiction co-extensive with the limits of the State, and its determination shall be final, in all criminal cases of whatever grade, with such exceptions and under such regulations as may be provided in this Constitution or as prescribed by law." The jurisdiction of this Court extends to criminal cases heard by the intermediate Courts of Appeals and directly from the trial courts in all cases in which the death penalty has been imposed. A constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 10) passed in November 1985 and effective January 1, 1986, gives the Court of Criminal Appeals (and the Supreme Court) jurisdiction to answer questions of state law certified from a federal appellate court. In addition, the Legislature has authorized the Court of Criminal Appeals to promulgate "rules of post trial and appellate procedure" in criminal cases.

The Court of Criminal Appeals, as originally established, was composed of three judges. As its workload increased, the Legislature granted it the authority to appoint commissioners to aid in the disposition of pending cases. The number of judges on the Court was increased to five by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1966, and was again increased to nine by another constitutional amendment adopted in 1977.

Today, the Court of Criminal Appeals consists of a Presiding Judge and eight additional judges, who must have the same qualifications, and are elected in the same manner, as the justices of the Supreme Court.

The Courts of Appeals

The first intermediate appellate court in Texas was created by the Constitution of 1876, which created a Court of Appeals with appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases and in all civil cases originating in the county courts. However, by 1891, the docket of the Supreme Court had become so crowded that it became apparent that other changes were necessary to expedite the disposition of appellate cases. Thus, the amendment of 1891 converted the Court of Appeals into the Court of Criminal Appeals and authorized the Legislature to establish intermediate Courts of Civil Appeals located at various places throughout the State. The purpose of this amendment was to preclude the large quantity of civil litigation from further congesting the docket of the Supreme Court, while at the same time providing for a more convenient and less expensive system of intermediate appellate courts for civil cases. Under this authority, the Legislature has divided the state into 14 "Supreme Judicial Districts" and has established a Court of Appeals in each district. By constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) effective November 1985, the "Supreme Judicial Districts" were renamed "Courts of Appeals Districts."

In the Court Administration Act (art. 200a-1), effective January 1, 1986, the Legislature declared its intention to reapportion the Courts of Appeals Districts "as soon as practicable" so that the districts will "have judicial burdens that are as nearly equal as possible." The Supreme Court and Texas Judicial Council are directed to submit such a reapportionment plan to the next regular session of the Legislature. Courts of Appeals are now located in the following cities: Amarillo, Austin, Beaumont, Corpus Christi, Dallas, Eastland, El Paso, Fort Worth, Houston (two courts), San Antonio, Texarkana, Tyler, and Waco.

Each Court of Appeals has jurisdiction of appeals from the trial courts located in its respective district. The appeals heard in these courts are based upon the "record" (a written transcription of the testimony given, exhibits introduced, and the documents filed in the trial court) and the written and oral arguments of the appellate lawyers. The Courts of Appeals do not receive testimony or hear witnesses in considering the cases on appeal. In cases of slander, divorce, and certain other civil matters, the opinion of these courts is usually final.

Each of the Courts of Appeals has at least three judges -- a chief justice and two other justices. However, the Legislature is empowered to increase this number whenever the workload of an individual court requires additional judges. Presently, the Dallas Court of Appeals has 13 justices, the two courts located in Houston (the First and the Fourteenth) each have nine justices, the courts located in Fort Worth and San Antonio each have seven, the courts located in Austin and Corpus Christi each have six, the courts located in El Paso and Amarillo each have four, and the remaining courts each retain the constitutional minimum number of three. Presently there are 80 judges serving on the 14 intermediate Courts of Appeals.

Judges of these courts are elected in partisan elections for six-year terms of office by the voters in their own districts. They must have the same qualifications for office as the justices of the Supreme Court of Texas.

TRIAL COURTS

The trial courts are those courts in which witnesses are heard, testimony is received, exhibits are offered into evidence, and a verdict is rendered. In a civil case, the verdict determines which party to the lawsuit prevails; in a criminal case, the verdict determines whether the defendant is guilty or not guilty of the crime alleged. In all cases, the parties have the right to a trial by a jury of either six or twelve local citizens. Except in capital murder cases, the parties have the right to waive a trial by jury and have the judge presiding over the case make the final determination. Generally, determinations made in the trial courts can be appealed to the appellate courts for review.

The trial court structure in Texas has several different levels, each level handling different types of cases. The state trial court of general jurisdiction is known as the district court. The county-level courts consist of the "constitutional" county courts, the "statutory" county courts at law, and the "statutory" probate courts. In addition, there are the municipal courts, located in each incorporated city of the State, and the justice of the peace courts, located in precincts of each county of the State.

District-Level Courts

The district courts are the primary trial courts in Texas, the successor to the common law nisi prius courts. The Constitution of the Republic provided for not less than three nor more than eight district courts, each having a judge elected by a joint ballot of both houses of Congress for a term of four years. Most constitutions of the State continued the district courts but provided that the judges were to be elected by the qualified voters. The exceptions were the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861 which provided for the appointment of judges by the Governor with confirmation by the Senate. All of the constitutions have provided that the judges of these courts must be chosen from defined districts (as opposed to state-wide election) and that court proceedings be conducted at the county seat of each county.

District courts are courts of general jurisdiction. The constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) adopted effective in November 1985 amends art. V, sec. 8 of the Texas Constitution, in pertinent part, as follows:

> District Court jurisdiction consists of exclusive, appellate, and original jurisdiction of all actions, proceedings, and remedies, except in cases where exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction may be conferred by this Constitution or other law on some other court, tribunal, or administrative body.

This provision, while it extends a district court's potential jurisdiction to "all actions," also makes such jurisdiction relative in that the court's jurisdiction excludes any matters in which exclusive, appellate, or original jurisdiction is conferred by law upon some other court. For this reason, while one can speak of the "general" jurisdiction of a district court, the actual jurisdiction of any specific court will always be limited by the constitutional or statutory provisions which confer exclusive, original, or appellate jurisdiction on other courts serving the same county or counties.

Taking into account the various constitutional and statutory provisions which confer general jurisdiction on other levels of court, it can be said that district courts generally have the following jurisdiction: original jurisdiction in all criminal cases of the grade of felony, and misdemeanors involving official misconduct; cases of divorce; suits for title to land or enforcement of liens on land; contested elections; suits for slander or defamation; suits in behalf of the state for escheat; and all civil matters wherein the amount in controversy is $500 or more. (This lower limit of district court jurisdiction is no longer clearly defined. See amended art. V, §8, Tex. Const.; §§24.007 and 27.031, Gov't Code; and art. 1970a, V.T.C.S.) In those counties having statutory county courts at law, the district courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction in civil cases wherein the amount in controversy is $5,000 or more and concurrent jurisdiction with the statutory county courts at law in cases where the amount in controversy exceeds $500 but is less than $5,000. The Legislature has, however, tended to increase the concurrent jurisdictional amounts of individual county courts at law above the $5,000 general limit.

The district courts hear contested matters involved in probate cases and have general supervisory control over commissioners courts. In addition, district courts have the power to issue writs of habeas corpus, mandamus, injunction, certiorari, sequestration, attachment, garnishment, and all writs necessary to enforce their jurisdiction.

Appeals from judgments of the district courts are to the Court of Appeals having jurisdiction over the locale of the district court.

As of September 1, 1986, the Legislature had established 374 separate district-level courts, identified by separate numbers, each having its own judge elected by the voters of the judicial district. In a number of locations, the geographical jurisdiction of two or more district courts is overlapping.

The 1985 constitutional amendment (S.J.R. 14) established a Judicial Districts Board to reapportion Texas Judicial Districts, subject to legislative approval. The same amendment also allows for more than one judge per judicial district.

Most district courts exercise both criminal and civil jurisdiction, but in the metropolitan areas there is a tendency for the courts to specialize in either civil, criminal, or family law matters. In some localities, the courts that exercise criminal jurisdiction exclusively are designated criminal district courts. A limited number of district courts also exercise the subject-matter jurisdiction normally exercised by county courts.

Specialized Jurisdiction

The Supreme Court has repeatedly held that the Legislature cannot reduce the constitutional jurisdiction of a district court. Lord v. Clayton, 163 Tex. 62, 352 S.W.2d 718 (1961); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941); Reasonover v. Reasonover, 122 Tex. 512, 58 S.W. 2d 817 (1933); St. Louis S. W. Ry. v. Hall, 98 Tex. 480, 85 S.W. 786 (1905). Accord, Zamora v. State, 508 S.W.2d 819 (Tex. Crim. App. 1974). See also, Ward v. State, 523 S.W.2d 681, 682 (Tex. Crim. App. 1975); Castro v. State, 124 Tex. Crim. 13, 60 S.W.2d 211 (1933); and dissenting opinion in Ex Parte Bazemore, 430 S.W.2d 205 (Tex. Crim. App. 1968).

In St. Louis S.W. Ry. v. Hall, the Supreme Court stated the rule as follows: "If the Legislature did enough to bring into active existence a district court, it was at once clothed with the powers conferred by the Constitution upon such courts, and any attempts in the act to unduly limit those powers must be treated as futile." 85 S.W.2d at 788. In Lord v. Clayton, the Supreme Court held that, although the statute creating the 136th District Court of Jefferson County purportedly limited its jurisdiction to civil cases only, and other legislation purported to give exclusive jurisdiction in criminal cases to the Criminal District Court of Jefferson County, the 136th Court was nevertheless a constitutional district court with full power to impanel a grand jury, receive an indictment, and try the accused.

A new facet has been added to this jurisdictional issue by the 1985 amendment of art. V, §8 of the Constitution which now grants the district courts jurisdiction over all matters "except in cases where...jurisdiction may be conferred by this constitution or other law on some other court...." The extent to which this provision may alter the scope of district court jurisdiction cannot yet be determined.

Although the Legislature has not been able to divest a regular district court of any of its constitutional jurisdiction, the Legislature may, under its constitutional authority to create "other courts" (Tex. Const. art. V, sec. 1) establish special "district-level" courts with limited jurisdiction. See Jordan v. Crudgington, 231 S.W.2d 641 (Tex. 1950) (regarding the Court of Domestic Relations of Potter County); Ex Parte Richards, 137 Tex. 520, 155 S.W.2d 597 (1941) (regarding the Criminal District Court of Willacy County).

One "Criminal District Court" was created with jurisdiction limited to criminal, divorce, dependent and neglected children, adoption, and civil habeas corpus proceedings:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County	§24.920	1

As will be noted later, most special "Criminal District Courts" have jurisdiction concurrent with county-level courts in criminal matters.

While the courts have ruled that the Legislature may not limit the jurisdiction of regular district courts, the statutes frequently express the intention that certain district courts give primary attention to only a portion of those matters over which they have jurisdiction.

The 65th Legislature in 1977 converted all functioning domestic relations and special juvenile courts to district courts of general jurisdiction. However, these courts are to have primary responsibility for cases involving family law matters. There are now 32 such courts:

As of September 1, 1986, 146 statutory county courts at law and 12 probate courts had been created, largely in metropolitan areas. On or before January 1, 1987, 4 more courts will become active, making a total of 150 county courts at law and 12 probate courts. While the jurisdiction of these courts is generally carved out of that given to the "constitutional" county courts, the statutes specify in a few instances that certain jurisdiction normally in the district court is to be exercised concurrently by the county court at law and the district court.

Four county courts at law are given concurrent civil jurisdiction with the district courts in specified family law matters:

Rather than transfer jurisdiction absolutely from the county court to the district court, the Legislature in several instances has given both the district-level and the county courts concurrent jurisdiction in certain matters.

Criminal District Court No.3 of Tarrant County	§24.910, §24.912

The statute creating one criminal district court provides that it shall have concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts at law in the county in matters of county court criminal jurisdiction:

Criminal District Court of Jefferson County	§24.920	31

In one county, the district court has concurrent jurisdiction with the county court in all matters except probate:

Upshur (115th District Court)	art. 1970-387	32

In five counties, the district and county courts have concurrent jurisdiction in all civil and criminal matters normally vested solely in the county court:

Hardin (356th District Court)	§24.502	33
Hill (66th District Court)	§24.168, §26.209
Johnson (18th District Court)	§24.119, §26.226	34
Van Zandt (294th District Court)	§24.471
Wood (294th District Court)	§24.471

In one county, if the county judge is licensed to practice law in Texas and has practiced for at least two years, the jurisdiction of the constitutional county court is expanded to include (concurrent with district court) family law cases, eminent domain, and civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $20,000:

Fayette	art. 1970-310 note	35

County-Level Courts

The county courts were established by the Constitution of 1836. They were presided over by a chief justice, who was appointed by the Congress of the Republic of Texas for a term of four years. This continued from 1836 to 1841, when the office was made elective. The term was shortened to two years in the Constitutions of 1845 and 1861. Under the Constitution of 1866, the name of the presiding officer of the court was changed from chief justice to county judge, and the term of office was again established at four years.

The county court was abolished by the Constitution of 1869, but was re-established by the Constitution of 1876 with an elected presiding officer, the county judge, with a two-year term. The term of office was increased to four years by a constitutional amendment adopted in 1954.

Today, the Texas Constitution provides for a county court in each county. Generally, "constitutional" county courts have concurrent jurisdiction with justice of the peace courts in civil cases where the amount in controversy is $200 or more, and less than $1,000; general jurisdiction over probate cases; and exclusive original jurisdiction over all misdemeanors where punishment for the offense, upon conviction, is by fine exceeding $200, or where a jail sentence not to exceed two years may be imposed. However, the county courts do not have criminal jurisdiction where a criminal district court exists unless expressly authorized by statute (Tex. Const., art. V, sec. 16). County courts generally have appellate jurisdiction (by trial de novo) over cases tried originally in the justice of the peace and municipal courts.

Original and appellate judgments of the county courts may be appealed to the Courts of Appeals. The Constitution provides that the county judge "shall be well informed in the law of the State ..." This has been interpreted to mean that neither formal study of the law nor a license to practice law is a necessary qualification to hold office as county judge. Presently, of the 254 county judges in the State, approximately one-fourth are licensed to practice law.

Under its constitutional authorization to "...establish such other courts as it may deem necessary...[and to] conform the jurisdiction of the district and other inferior courts thereto," the Legislature has created statutory county courts, primarily in metropolitan counties, to provide assistance to the single "constitutional" county court. The Legislature has authorized a total of 165 of these statutory courts in 68 counties to relieve the county judge of some or all of the judicial duties of office. As of September 1, 1986, 158 of these courts were in actual operation. (See table below.)

Under the constitutional grant of authority the Legislature has established the following statutory county courts (the number of statutory courts in each county is shown in parentheses):

The judges of these statutory courts are elected in county-wide, partisan elections for four-year terms. Any vacancies occurring between elections are filled by appointment of the county commissioners. The statutes creating these courts uniformly require that the persons serving as judges must be licensed to practice law in Texas.

The legal jurisdiction of the special county courts varies considerably and is determined by the specific statute that establishes the particular court. As the varied names suggest, some of these courts have subject-matter jurisdiction in only limited fields, such as civil, criminal, probate, or appellate (from justice courts or municipal courts); however, even the specialized name does not always disclose the complete function of the court. The concurrent civil jurisdiction of the county courts at law with the district courts extends to a higher dollar amount in controversy than for "constitutional" county courts, but to determine the exact jurisdiction of any one of the courts, it is necessary to review the specific statute that established it.

In general, county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with district courts in civil matters where the amount in controversy is at least $500 and not more than $5,000. Ninety-three of such courts, however, have had had higher maximum jurisdictional amounts established by statute. (See below for specific examples.) Other jurisdiction of a county court at law is, broadly speaking, either carved out of the "constitutional" county court's regular jurisdiction or shared with it (concurrent).

The jurisdiction of county courts at law and their relation to the "constitutional" county courts take many forms. In the creation of two county courts at law, all civil, criminal, and probate jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law of Nacogdoches County (art. 1970-361)
County Court at Law of Reeves County (art. 1970-372) 36

In one county, all civil, criminal, and probate jurisdiction of the county court is transferred to the county court at law and, if the county judge is an attorney, the county court exercises concurrent jurisdiction in all matters. If the county judge is not an attorney, the county court exercises concurrent jurisdiction only in probate and mental health matters:

County Court at Law of Bastrop County (art. 1970-393) 37

In the creation of 25 county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law and it was provided that the courts would have concurrent jurisdiction in probate matters:

2. Effective 1-1-88 or such earlier date as may be determined by the county commissioners.

County Court at Law of Anderson County (art. 1970-377)
County Court at Law of Brazos County (art. 1970-359)
County Court at Law No. 2 of Brazos County (art. 1970-359)

38

Two county courts at law exercise concurrent jurisdiction with the district court in all civil and criminal matters that had earlier been transferred from the county court to the district court and in specified family law matters. The county court at law and county court have concurrent probate jurisdiction:

County Court at Law of Comal County (art. 1970-368)
County Court at Law of Webb County (art. 1970-360)

39

The Legislature provided, in the creation of four county courts at law, that all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law, and that the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judge in probate matters:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301)
County Court at Law No. 3 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301d)
County Court of Jefferson County at Law (arts. 1970-112, 1970-113)
County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 2 (art. 1970-126a)

40

Similarly, another county court at law was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, the judge of the county court at law could "act for" the constitutional county judge in probate matters, and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to criminal cases:

County Court of Jefferson County at Law No. 3 (art. 1970-126b)

41

For seven county courts at law, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to the county court at law:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Bexar County (arts. 1970-64, 1970-301)
County Court at Law No. 5 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.1)

County Court at Law No. 8 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.3)
County Court at Law No. 9 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.3)
County Court at Law of Grayson County (art. 1970-332)
County Court at Law of Taylor County (art. 1970-343)

42

Two county courts at law were transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, and the county courts at law were instructed to give preference to criminal matters and appeals de novo from municipal and justice courts:

County Court at Law No. 4 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.2)
County Court at Law No. 6 of Bexar County (art. 1970-301e.2)

43

In one instance, all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court was transferred to the county court at law, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate, and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to original jurisdiction criminal cases:

County Court at Law No. 1 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339, 1970-339A, 1970-339C)

Similarly, another county court at law in the same county was transferred all civil and criminal jurisdiction of the county court, the courts have concurrent jurisdiction in probate, and the county court at law is instructed to give preference to civil cases and criminal cases appealed from courts of inferior jurisdiction:

County Court at Law No. 2 of Nueces County (arts. 1970-339A, 1970-339C) 45

Civil jurisdiction of the county court, except probate, was transferred to six county courts at law:

County Civil Court at Law No. 1 of Harris County (art. 1970-76)
County Civil Court at Law No. 2 of Harris County (art. 1970-110d)
County Civil Court at Law No. 3 of Harris County (art. 1970-110e) 46

In one county, concurrent jurisdiction may be exercised by the "constitutional" county court and the county court at law in all matters except civil cases up to $500, over which the county court retains exclusive jurisdiction. Four county courts at law have concurrent jurisdiction with the "constitutional" county court in criminal matters, and have sole jurisdiction of appeals from justice of the peace and municipal courts:

County Criminal Court of Appeals of Dallas County (art. 1970-31.20)
County Criminal Court of Appeals No. 2 of Dallas County (art. 19870-31.12) 58
County Criminal Court No. 3 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62c)
County Criminal Court No. 4 of Tarrant County (art. 1970-62d)

Justice of the Peace Courts

The position of justice of the peace was established by the Constitution of the Republic which provided for a "convenient number of Justices of the Peace" to be elected by the qualified voters of each county, for terms of two years. This office has been retained in all subsequent constitutions, although the jurisdiction of these courts has been severely restricted in later constitutions.

The justice of the peace is important in the capacity as a committing magistrate, with the authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the justice of the peace may hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge the accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail. In addition, the justice of the peace serves as the coroner in those counties where there is no provision for a medical examiner, serves as an ex officio notary public, and may perform marriage ceremonies.

As amended in November 1983, the Texas Constitution provides that each county is to be divided into at least one, and not more than eight, justice precincts, in each of which is to be elected a justice of the peace. If the precinct includes a city of 18,000 or more inhabitants, an additional justice of the peace is authorized. Approximately 950 justice of the peace courts are in operation today.

Justices of the peace are elected by the voters of the respective precincts of the county in partisan elections for four-year terms of office. There are no constitutional or statutory qualifications to hold this office and only about eight percent of the justices of the peace in the State are lawyers.

Justice of the peace courts have original jurisdiction in misdemeanor criminal cases where punishment upon conviction may be by fine only. These courts generally have exclusive jurisdiction of civil matters when the amount in controversy does not exceed $200, and concurrent jurisdiction with the county courts when the amount in controversy is from $200 to $1,000. By statute, they are given jurisdiction over forcible entry and detainer cases. The justice of the peace courts also function as small claims courts. Trials in justice of the peace courts are not of record. Appeals from these courts are upon trial de novo in the county court, the county court at law, or the district court.

In 37 counties, the county court, by special statute, has been given concurrent civil jurisdiction with justices of the peace in that county:

Municipal Courts

Under its constitutional authority to create "...such other courts as may be provided by law," the Texas Legislature has created municipal courts in each incorporated city of the State.

Presently, municipal courts are operating in approximately 847 cities. Metropolitan cities usually have more than one municipal court. These courts have neither civil nor appellate jurisdiction, but do have original and exclusive jurisdiction over violations of city ordinances. Such ordinances are generally punishable by fines up to $200, but since September 1, 1983, fines of up to $1,000 may be provided for violation of ordinances relating to fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation. The municipal courts also have concurrent jurisdiction with justice courts in misdemeanor cases resulting from violations of state laws occurring within the city limits, when punishment upon conviction may be by fine only, not to exceed $200.

Municipal judges also serve as magistrates of the State. In this capacity, the municipal judge has authority to issue warrants for the apprehension and arrest of persons charged with the commission of public offenses, both felonies and misdemeanors. As a magistrate, the municipal judge may issue search and arrest warrants, hold preliminary hearings, reduce testimony to writing, discharge an accused, or remand the accused to jail and fix bail.

Trials in the municipal courts, except 10, are not of record, and appeals go to the county court, the county court at law, or the district court upon trial de novo.

Under the authority of special statutes, municipal courts in the following 10 cities operate as "courts of record":

Austin
El Paso
Houston
Longview
Marshall
Midland
San Antonio
Sweetwater

[1] Effective 1-1-88 or such earlier date as may be determined by the county commissioners.

Lubbock
Wichita Falls

Statutory authorization to establish municipal courts of record in Dallas, Fort Worth and Odessa had not been implemented as of September 1, 1986.

In the courts of record, a formal record and transcript is made of the proceedings in the trial and appeals of these cases are made on the record perfected in the municipal courts. Such appeals are generally heard in the county court or county court at law, but the Legislature has authorized the City of El Paso to create a municipal court of appeals to hear appeals from that city's municipal courts. The statutes creating these municipal courts of record uniformly require the judge to be licensed to practice law in this State. No such provision is required of the other municipal judges, and of the approximately 1,109 municipal judges in this State, about 41 percent presently are licensed as attorneys.

Selection and terms of office of municipal court judges vary from city to city. While in a few of the smaller cities of the State, municipal judges are elected at city elections, the vast number are appointed by the governing body of the city. Terms of office range from two years to an indefinite term--at the will of the governing body.

Article 200a-1, Ch. 4, V.T.C.S., establishes nine administrative judicial regions in the State for administrative purposes. An active or retired district judge or an active or retired appellate judge with judicial experience in a district court serves as the Presiding Judge in each such region, upon appointment by the Governor.

The duties of a presiding judge include promulgation of regional rules of administration, advising local judges on caseflow management, recommending to the Supreme Court regional changes necessary for the improvement of judicial administration, acting for local administrative judges who do not perform their duties, and implementing administrative rules adopted by the Supreme Court.

The Presiding Judge convenes an annual conference of the district and statutory county court judges in the administrative region to consult on the state of business in the courts. This conference is empowered to adopt rules for the administration of cases in the region. The Presiding Judge may assign active and senior district judges and active, retired or former county court at law judges residing within the administrative region to courts within the region. The Presiding Judge of one administrative region may request the Presiding Judge of another region to assign a judge from that region to sit in a court located in the administrative region of the Presiding Judge making the request.

The Chief Justice of the Supreme Court convenes an annual conference of the nine Presiding Judges to determine the need for assignment of judges and to promote the uniform administration of the assignment of judges. The Chief Justice is empowered to assign judges of one administrative region for service in another whenever such assignments are necessary for the prompt and efficient administration of justice.

ANNUAL SUPPLEMENTAL COMPENSATION

Government Code, Secs. 31.001-31.004 V.T.C.A., authorizes the counties in each Supreme Judicial District to pay each justice of the Court of Appeals for that district a sum not to exceed $15,000 per year for administrative services rendered. This compensation is in addition to the salary paid by the State. Art. 6813b, Sec. 3, V.T.C.S., authorizes associate justices of the Courts of Appeals to receive a combined yearly salary from state and county sources of up to $1,000 less than the state salary paid to justices of the Supreme Court. This same provision authorizes the chief justices of the Courts of Appeals to receive a combined salary of up to $500 less than the state salary paid to justices of the Supreme Court. As of September 1, 1986, the yearly state salary paid to a justice of the Supreme Court was $78,795.

Various statutes pertaining to particular courts or counties allow the state salaries of district court judges to be supplemented from county funds. The 1986-1987 General Appropriations Act, at Art. IV, Page 26, "Judiciary -- Special Provisions," Sec. 2, authorizes district court judges to receive a total salary of up to $1,000 less than the combined yearly salary from state and county sources received by justices of the Courts of Appeals in whose district the district court is located.

Justices of the Courts of Appeals

(Supplements for the year beginning September 1, 1986, paid by the counties in addition to the basic state salary of $71,379 for Chief Justices and $70,916 for Justices)

REPORTS OF JUDICIAL AGENCIES

Texas Judicial Council

The Texas Judicial Council was established in 1929 by Article 2328a, V.T.C.S., to make a "...continuous study of and report upon the organization, rules, procedure and practice of the judicial system of the State of Texas, the work accomplished and the results produced by that system and its various parts and methods of its improvement." To enable it to fulfill these functions, the Council maintains statistics on docket activity of the courts of the state; conducts studies on methods to improve the administration of justice; formulates methods of simplifying judicial procedures; and submits recommendations of the Council to the Governor, the Legislature, and the Supreme Court.

Two meetings of the Texas Judicial Council were held during Fiscal Year 1986--on November 8, 1985 and March 21, 1986.

Former Article 2328a, now Chapter 71 of the Government Code, provides for the following specific duties of the Council:

(1) continuously study the organization, rules, procedures and practice, work accomplished, results, and uniformity of the discretionary powers of the state courts and methods for their improvement;

(2) receive and consider advice from judges, public officials, members of the Bar, and citizens concerning remedies for faults in the administration of justice.

(3) design methods for simplifying judicial procedure, expediting the transaction of judicial business, and correcting faults in or improving the administration of justice;

(4) file a complete detailed report with the Governor and the Supreme Court before December 2 of each year on Council activities, information from the Council's study, and Council recommendations; and a supplemental report on Council activities, findings, or recommendations at a time it considers advisable;

(5) investigate and report on any matters concerning the administration of justice that the Supreme Court or the Legislature refers to the Council;

(6) gather judicial statistics and other pertinent information from the several state judges and other court officials of this state; and

(7) meet at least once in each calendar year and at other times as ordered by the Council or under its authority.

MEMBERSHIP OF THE COUNCIL

Council membership is composed of: (1) the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court and the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, or their designees from among the membership of their respective courts; (2) two justices of the Courts of Appeals designated by the governor; (3) two presiding judges of the administrative judicial regions selected by the governor; (4) the chairman and immediate past chairman of the House Judiciary Committee and of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; (5) seven members of the bar appointed by the governor; and (6) two non-lawyer citizens, one of whom must be a journalist, each appointed by the governor.

Hon. Ben Z. Grant, Justice of the 6th Court of Appeals in Texarkana, served as President of the Judicial Council from July, 1980 until September, 1986. Before being elected to the Court of Appeals, Justice Grant served as district judge of the 71st Judicial District in Marshall, Harrison County, and prior to that service, Justice Grant served for ten years as a member of the Texas House of Representatives. During that tenure, he served for three terms as chairman of the House Judiciary Committee, and a member of the Council as a result of that position.

Other officers of the Council during Fiscal Year 1986 were Hon. John L. Hill, Jr., Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, Vice President; and Hon. Tom G. Davis, Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, Secretary. Judge Davis served as a member of the Council as the designee of the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Following the decision of Judge Davis not to seek re-election to the Court of Criminal Appeals, Presiding John F. Onion, Jr., elected to serve as a member of the Council in March, 1986.

Officers elected September 12, 1986, are: President, Justice Joe Spurlock II of the 2nd Court of Appeals in Fort Worth; Vice-President, Chief Justice John L. Hill, Jr.; and Secretary, Presiding Judge John F. Onion, Jr.

Legislative members of the Council are: State Senator Oscar H. Mauzy, chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; State Senator Ray Farabee, immediate past chairman of the Senate Jurisprudence Committee; State Representative Bob Bush, chairman of the House Judiciary Committee; and Justice Grant, immediate past chairman of the House Judiciary Committee.

Members from the Courts of Appeals serving during 1986 are: Justice Sam Bass, 1st Court of Appeals, Houston and Justice Joe Spurlock, 2nd Court of Appeals, Fort Worth.

The two Presiding Judges of the Administrative Judicial Regions who serve as members are: Charles J. Murray, Presiding Judge of the 8th Administrative Judicial Region, Fort Worth and Ray L. McKim, former Presiding Judge of the 7th Administrative Judicial Region, Odessa.

Attorney members are: John L. McCraw, Jr., Justice of the 5th Court of Appeals (Dallas), McKinney; L. E. Frazier, Houston; Mark Martin, Dallas; Charles W. Barrow, Waco; Alan McNeill, Beaumont; Robert O. Smith, Austin; and Curt F. Steib, San Angelo.

Lay members of the Council are: Bill Hartman, Rosenberg and Gene McLaughlin, Ralls.

REAPPORTIONMENT OF COURTS OF APPEALS DISTRICTS

Section 1 of House Bill 1658, 69th Legislature, Regular Session (1985), provides:

> SECTION 1. DECLARATION OF POLICY. It is the policy of this state that the administration of justice shall be prompt and efficient, and that for this purpose, the supreme judicial districts of the state shall be reapportioned as soon as practicable so that the supreme judicial districts shall have judicial burdens that are as nearly equal as possible. It is the intent of the legislature that the Texas Judicial Council and the supreme court, as provided by this Act, present a reapportionment plan of the supreme judicial districts, which shall be composed of one or more whole counties, to the next regular session of the Texas Legislature...

Pursuant to this directive, Ben. Z. Grant, President of the Texas Judicial Council, on June 21, 1985, appointed a Committee on Courts of Appeals Districts, composed of Dean Charles Barrow, Chairman; Mr. L. E. Frazier; and Mr. Mark Martin. This Committee solicited comments from the chief justices of each of the 14 courts of appeals and circulated proposals by mail during the summer of 1985. The Committee met in Austin on October 18, 1985, and adopted a proposal which was submitted to the full membership of the Texas Judicial Council on November 8, 1985. This proposal was adopted and transmitted to the Supreme Court. On December 12, 1985, the Supreme Court reported the reapportionment plan back to the Texas Judicial Council with certain modifications. On March 21, 1986, the Texas Judicial Council concurred in the modifications approved by the Supreme Court.

Criteria Used in the Reapportionment Proposal

The statute directing the reapportionment study provides that two criteria shall be used:

(1) Each court of appeals district "...shall have judicial burdens that are as nearly equal as possible." and

(2) Each proposed district "shall be composed of one or more whole counties."

In addition to the two specific legislative directives, the Council and Supreme Court assumed:

(3) That the legislature did not intend for any plan to recommend an increase or decrease in the number of justices presently authorized for any one court of appeals,

(4) That there should not be any increase or decrease in the number of courts, nor

(5) That any court should be moved from its present principal seat and headquarters location.

Further, goals were established for the reapportionment plan:

(6) All current overlapping districts should be eliminated except for the 1st and 14th districts which are coterminous,

(7) Only those adjustments necessary to equalize the judicial burdens of each court should be made, and

(8) The proposed districts should be drawn as compactly as possible without regard to the residence counties of incumbent justices. (The Court and Council do recommend the adoption of an appropriate "grandfather clause" for those incumbent justices who are affected by the proposed reapportionment.)

As a measure of the "judicial burdens" which are to be equalized, the number of appeals filed from each county during the years 1982, 1983, 1984, and 1985 were used as the primary measure.

Current Courts of Appeals Districts

Calculations made from these cases filed show that the range of cases filed per justice in each of the courts ranged from 215 cases per justice in the Texarkana Court to 447 cases per justice in the Dallas Court. Purely as a method of statistical comparison, the state average of cases filed per justice was divided by the total cases filed statewide and a theoretical number of justices for each court of appeals was calculated, based on the equalization of cases filed per justice statewide. This calculation resulted in a range of 1.8 justices for the Texarkana Court to 16.4 justices for the Dallas Court.

Proposed Courts of Appeals Districts

The Courts of Appeals Districts proposed by the Supreme Court and the Texas Judicial Council are shown on the map on the following page. This map also lists the calculations of per justice case filings based on the proposed districts. Had this proposed districts plan been in effect for the period 1981-1985, the per justice cases filed would have ranged from 303 cases per justices in the Eastland Court to 421 in the Beaumont Court. Again, the state average of cases filed per justice was used to calculate the number of justices required on each court to equalize the judicial burden in the proposed districts. A comparison of the current number of justices on each court and this calculated number of justices to equalize the judicial burdens statewide may be found in the table on the following page.

COUNTY BAIL BOND BOARD REPORTS

The 67th Legislature enacted Senate Bill 727, relating to the regulation of bail bondsmen, which became effective August 31, 1981. Section 5 of the statute (Article 2372p-3, V.T.C.S.) automatically creates a county bail bond board in counties having a population of more than 110,000 and authorizes other counties, at their option, to create a county bail bond board. Section 5(f)(8) provides that it will be the duty of the county bail bond boards:

> To file reports and furnish information on the operation of the bonding business in the county at the request of the Texas Judicial Council which shall report annually to the governor and the legislature on or before December 1 of each year on the operation of the bonding business in the state.

A questionnaire and statistical report form was distributed to the counties involved to be returned in November, 1985. Responses to the questionnaire were compiled into a report to the Governor and the Legislature. Because of the low response of counties to the request for information, a valid summarization of the bonding business statewide could not be made.

CONSIDERATION OF POSSIBLE LEGISLATION

Several matters were presented to the Council for consideration prior to the Regular Session of the 70th Legislature. These matters had been taken under advisement at the end of the year:

Appeal of Traffic Cases

The Council is considering the problem of duplicitous use of judicial resources resulting from the trial de novo procedure for the appeal of traffic cases. For many years, members of the judiciary and the legislature have been searching for a solution to the problem of a simple traffic case often requiring two trials.

One possible solution under consideration is legislation similar to Senate Bill 1277, introduced in the 69th Legislature. This bill would not allow a defendant to appeal a judgment of a justice or a municipal court if the defendant entered a plea of guilty or nolo contrendre in that court. The bill would require the defendant to take some action to contest the charge at the lower court level. This bill would not eliminate the trial de novo procedure. Discussion by members of the Council raised the point that the bill might not accomplish the desired purpose because it would require the state to present its case in the lower court but allow the defendant to rest and present no evidence, resulting in a waste of court time at the justice or municipal court level.

Discussion was also had on the use of courts of record at the justice or municipal level to reduce the number of cases appealed. It was noted that 12 cities now have municipal courts of record and that appeals from those courts to the county level courts have declined dramatically. The problems noted with the courts of record are (1) they require special legislation and (2) they are expensive for a city to implement, due to the costs of providing a court reporter for proceedings in the municipal courts. The Council decided to continue its study of the municipal courts of record before making specific recommendations to the Legislature.

Simultaneous Service as Justice of the Peace and Municipal Court Judge

Recent Attorney General's Opinion JM-422 was noted by the Council. The opinion holds that the doctrine of incompatibility prevents a person from serving as a justice of the peace and a municipal judge at the same time. The opinion has implications for approximately 115 persons who simultaneously serve as a justice of the peace and a municipal court judge.

Supplemental Dispute Resolution

The Council has for several years been studying the developments in procedures generally known as supplemental dispute resolution mechanisms, and recent materials in the area were reviewed by the members.

Videotape Court Reporting

Judge Steib reported to the Council on recent developments in the use of videotape equipment to make the trial court record for use on review by an appellate court. Several courts in Kentucky are now using videotape as the appellate record. In cases in which one party wishes to object to a particular portion of the trial, that portion of the taped record is transcribed by the attorney complaining. Judge Steib noted that the use of videotape greatly reduces the time to produce a trial transcript by eliminating the transcription of the proceedings by a court reporter.

Presiding Judge Onion reported that the Supreme Court and Court of Criminal Appeals had both adopted rules to allow a pilot project of audio recording of trials in Dallas County.

Courts of Inquiry

The Council considered again the draft of a bill from the 69th Legislature which would amend the provisions Chapter 52, Code of Criminal Procedure, regarding courts of inquiry. These amendments would limit the institution of a court of inquiry by district courts exclusively. It would also require the filing of a sworn affidavit by the judge finding that good cause exists that an offense has been committed. The bill also requires the local district or county attorney to assist in courts of inquiry and establishes a method of payment of fees if an attorney is appointed.

Office of Court Administration

The Office of Court Administration of the Texas Judicial System was established in 1977 by Article 2328b, V.T.C.S. (now Chapter 72, Tex. Gov't Code). The agency operates under the direction and supervision of the Supreme Court of Texas and is charged by this statute with the implementation of the provisions of the act and of any rules of administration promulgated by the Supreme Court for the efficient administration of justice in this State. The statute specifically provides for the following duties to be performed by the Office of Court Administration:

(1) assist the justices and judges in discharging their administrative duties;

(2) consult with the administrative judges and assist them in discharging duties imposed by law or by a rule adopted by the Supreme Court;

(3) recommend to the Supreme Court appropriate means to implement the act;

(4) examine the judicial dockets, practices, and procedures of the courts and the administrative and business methods or systems used in the office of a clerk of a court or in an office related to and serving a court and recommend necessary improvements to a method or system; a form or other document used to record judicial business; or any other change that will promote the efficient administration of justice;

(5) prepare and submit an estimated budget for the appropriation of funds necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system, and study and recommend expenditures of funds appropriated for the maintenance and operation of the judicial system;

(6) consult with and assist court clerks; other court officers or employees; and clerks or other officers or employees of offices related to and serving a court to provide for the efficient administration of justice;

(7) consult with and make recommendations to administrators and coordinators of the courts to provide for uniform administration of the courts and efficient administration of justice;

(8) implement rules of administration or other rules adopted by the Supreme Court for the efficient administration of justice;

(9) perform such additional duties as may be assigned by the Supreme Court and by the Chief Justice; and

(10) prepare an annual report of the activities of the Office to be published in the Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council.

The statute also directs the Office of Court Administration to provide the necessary staff functions for the efficient operation of the Texas Judicial Council.

Under the authority granted to it by Section 72.011 of the Government Code, the Supreme Court has directed the Office of Court Administration to provide the necessary staff functions for the orderly operations of the Council of Presiding Judges of the Administrative Judicial Regions, the Judicial Districts Board, the Judicial Budget Board, the Child Support Guidelines Advisory Committee, the Judicial Education Executive Committee, the Committee on the Code of Judicial Conduct, and the Task Force on the Court Administration Act.

STATISTICAL REPORTING SYSTEMS

Under the authority of Section 71.035, Tex. Gov't Code, which provides for the reporting of court activity and other information pertaining to the amount and character of the business transacted by the courts, the Office receives approximately 2,500 reports each month from the courts of the State. These reports are checked for accuracy and any necessary corrections are made. The information is then entered into a computerized data system. This provides ready access to the current status of the dockets of the courts throughout the state on a county-by-county basis and allows this Office to responde to numerous requests for this type of information which are received each year.

Additionally, this information is used to provide a monthly report to each of the Presiding Judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions on the court activity in each of the counties contained in his Region. A more detailed explanation of these monthly reports on court activity is contained in a later portion of this report.

The monthly reports are submitted on official forms developed in consultation with advisory committees of local court officials. These include a six-page report for the activities of the Courts of Appeals, an eight-page report for the district courts, a five-page report for county-level courts, and two-page reports for the justice of the peace and municipal courts. Annual reports on court activities are received from the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals.

EQUALIZATION OF COURTS OF APPEALS DOCKETS

The Supreme Court is responsible for equalizing the dockets of the Courts of Appeals (Section 73.001, Tex. Gov't Code). To assist the Court in this docket equalization, this Office also maintains a monthly reporting system on the activity of the Courts of Appeals.

From the case data supplied by the Courts of Appeals, the Office prepares a monthly summary of the docket status of each Court of Appeals. The Supreme Court uses the Court of Appeals docket report to determine the transfer of cases between Courts of Appeals.

During fiscal year 1986 (which ended August 31, 1986), a total of 258 cases, 141 civil and 117 criminal, were transferred under this authority.

The following transfers between the Courts of Appeals were made on orders of the Supreme Court:

ANNUAL REPORT ON THE TEXAS JUDICIAL SYSTEM

As provided by law, the Fifty-seventh Annual Report of the Texas Judicial Council and the Ninth Annual Report of the Office of Court Administration were published as a single report in July, 1986. This was the second report prepared on the state fiscal year basis. This 616-page report included data on and analysis of court activity at all levels of courts in the State of Texas for the fiscal year ending August 31, 1985. Approximately 23,000 monthly reports on court activity were compiled and validated during the year to produce the data in the Annual Report. The Annual Report also contained information on the variances in subject-matter jurisdiction of Texas trial courts; a thorough, descriptive analysis of the judicial system; and a comprehensive directory of judges, clerks, and other persons employed by the Texas Judicial System. Information on the assignments of visiting judges by presiding judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions was also included. Approximately 2000 copies of this Report were distributed to all judges and clerks, members of the Legislature, state and federal agencies, criminal justice planning units, local officials, and libraries.

LEGISLATIVE SERVICES

During fiscal year 1986, this Office continued its normal liaison duties with committees and members of the 69th Legislature by providing information of the Texas Judicial System.

The staff worked closely with the staffs of various legislative committees which have responsibilities involving the judicial branch and prepared the reports of various judicial boards and agencies for submission to the 70th Legislature, including the drafting of bills to implement the recommendations included in the reports.

STATE BUDGET ESTIMATES FOR THE JUDICIARY

The act establishing the Office of Court Administration directs the office, under the direction and supervision of the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court, to prepare and submit to the Legislature budget estimates of state appropriations necessary for the maintenance and operation of the judicial branch of government.

In fulfilling this responsibility for the 69th Legislature, the Chief Justice appointed a Judicial Budget Board to develop a comprehensive budget for the operation of the judicial system of the state. This Board is continuing its work in preparing coordinated budget requests for the 70th Legislature. At the direction of the Chief Justice, the staff of the Office of Court Administration has served as Secretariat to the Board to coordinate the preparation of budget requests by the various courts and judicial agencies. Staff members personally conferred with district judges; personnel and justices of each of the Courts of Appeals, the Supreme Court and the Court of Criminal Appeals; and the statewide judicial agencies to provide technical assistance in the preparation of their budget requests.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO APPELLATE COURTS

The Office of Court Administration provides continuous support for the automated case management, accounting and payroll systems in use by 14 of the 16 appellate courts.

The accounting personnel of this Office provide continuous training and technical assistance to the appellate courts in the daily use of these systems. In addition, this Office continues to prepare the Annual Financial Reports for each of the 16 appellate courts.

TECHNICAL ASSISTANCE TO TRIAL COURTS

The Court Administration Act of 1985

The Court Administration Act [House Bill 1658, 69th Legislature, 1985] codified and revised various provisions of current law as well as adding significant new provisions to introduce modern management techniques into the operations of the trial courts of the state. The new legislation directs the Supreme Court to adopt rules of administration for the operation and management of the court system and to insure the efficient administration of justice. The legislature, however, provided no funds for the implementation of the new duties imposed, nor for the ongoing responsibilities mandated by the act. Because of this fact, the Supreme Court directed the Office of Court Administration to provide the necessary administrative support in all aspects of the implementation of this act.

Rules of Administration

Initially, the Supreme Court appointed a Task Force on the Court Administration Act to develop the necessary procedures and statewide rules to implement the provisions of H.B. 1658. Justice Jim Wallace is serving as chairman of this Task Force. The Task Force is broad-based and is representative of all segments of the Bar. Primarily, the membership was selected from the Presiding Judges of the Administrative Judicial Regions, the State Bar Committee on the Administration of Justice, the Supreme Court Advisory Committee on Rules, and representatives of the active trial bar. Also included are members of both the Senate and the House of Representatives, and judges and lawyers who had indicated a long-term interest in improving the administration of justice throughout the state.

To aid the Task Force with the development of proposed rules of administration, the Supreme Court obtained the services of Dean Ernest Friesen, one of the most nationally-noted authorities in the area of trial court administration, of the California Western School of Law in San Diego, with monies supplied through a small grant obtained from the Texas Bar Foundation. A continuation grant was later obtained from the Criminal Justice Division of the Governor's Office.

The Task Force held an organizational and orientation meeting on Saturday, September 7, 1985, in Austin. In October, Dean Friesen transmitted to the Supreme Court a report on the Texas Caseload Management Systems and a set of suggested Rules of Administration. These proposed rules were the basis for a working draft of Administrative Rules for Texas Trial Courts which was submitted by the Supreme Court on October 31, 1985, to the Task Force for its consideration.

The Task Force held a second meeting in Austin on November 16, 1985. At this meeting, Dean Friesen outlined, in some detail, both the findings in his report and the rationale and mechanics embodied in the proposed rules. Nine subcommittees of the Task Force were established to review each of the nine major sections of the Proposed Rules. On April 5, 1986, the Task Force met to consider the recommendations of each of these subcommittees. After a full day of discussion, the Task Force adopted the amended rules as its recommendations to the Supreme Court.

The Proposed Rules as recommended to the Supreme Court were the subject of an Open Forum Discussion at the State Bar Convention in Houston on June 19, 1986. Substantial opposition to the Court Administration Act, itself; to the concept of judge control of the court dockets; and to the proposed rules; were voiced at this meeting by various members of the Bar. Several members of the Supreme Court, five of the nine Presiding Judges, and a number of members of the Task Force were present during this Open Forum. All statements and testimony submitted during this Open Forum have been transcribed and submitted to the members of the Supreme Court for their consideration.

Regional and Local Administration

Within the framework of statewide rules adopted by the Supreme Court, the Court Administration Act directs that significant measures be taken at the level of the Administrative Judicial Regions, and at the local level by the district and statutory county-level courts in each county. The Presiding Judge of each of the nine Regions is made more directly responsible for the expeditious management of the district and (for the first time) the county-level courts within their respective regions. The Presiding Judges are directed to review and act on reports of caseload activity by the courts and to review and evaluate the local rules adopted by the judges of counties within their regions to determine their effectiveness. Meetings of judges of the Region are to be held and assignments of visiting judges made to ensure the prompt disposition of cases in the trial courts.

The courts within each county are empowered and directed to adopt local rules to ensure a fair distribution of work among the trial judges, and to adopt forms and procedures to be used by the courts for all similar cases to the end that the courts take control of a case when it is filed and maintain control of that case until finally disposed. Time limits are to be established within which hearings and submissions must be made and matters decided, and other procedures are to be adopted to ensure that no court substantially exceeds time standards for disposition of cases provided by the statewide rules.

Proposed model local rules to implement the above enumerated responsibilities were reviewed by the Presiding Judges at their meeting on July 10-11, 1986, pending final action on the statewide rules.

The judges serving each county are directed to elect a local administration judge for each county. This has now been accomplished in each county of the state.

To aid in developing a better knowledge of the duties of this new position, and to develop the necessary working relationship between the administrative judges of the counties in each Region and the Presiding Judge of each Region, this Office assisted each of the Presiding Judges in setting up a meeting with each of the Presiding Judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions and the local administrative judge of each county in their own region to discuss their duties under the provisions of the Court Administration Act and the proposed Rules of Administration.

In addition to these meetings, Dean Friesen, assisted by members of the Office of Court Administration staff, conducted a special three-day study of the civil district courts in Harris County on May 27, 28, and 29, 1986, and submitted recommendations to those judges to aid in the improvement of the administration of justice in Harris County. Many of the recommendations included in the Friesen Report have been implemented on a pilot basis.

Monthly Reports of Court Activity

The Office of Court Administration has, for a number of years, provided each Presiding Judge with a monthly report on the docket activity of the courts in each county of his Region. To address some of the new responsibilities imposed on the Presiding Judges by H.B. 1658, this report has been modified to provide each Presiding Judge with additional information through these monthly reports. In addition, further modifications, beginning in September, 1986, were made to include statutory county court activity as H.B. 1658, for the first time, placed some responsibilities for the county-level courts on the Presiding Judges.

These monthly reports have been provided to each Presiding Judge for a considerable length of time prior to the passage of H.B. 1658. They provide the Presiding Judge with a management overview of the court activity in each county located in his Region but are not the extensive reports as contemplated in H.B. 1658. This office is presently working with the Presiding Judges and their administrative assistants to develop reporting forms which will be transmitted directly from the trial court and the local administrative judges to the Presiding Judges of the appropriate Region to meet the new reporting requirements of H.B. 1658. As this reporting system is put in place for the Presiding Judges, information will be transmitted directly to their offices by the individual counties and courts. Pending the implementation of these reports directly from the trial ocurts to the regional offices, the current Monthly Report will enable each of the Presiding Judges to locate counties where specific attention should be focused, albeit somewhat after the fact.

The Office of Court Administration conducted a two-day seminar for the Presiding Judges and their administrative assistants on April 10-11, 1986, and a one-day seminar on September 25, 1986. During the first seminar, the new responsibilities of the Presiding Judges and of their administrative support personnel under the provision of policies and procedures to implement them were determined. The initial draft of suggested reports, which had been developed by the Office of Court Administration, were reviewed and revised. These reports are intended to provide the Presiding Judges with information concerning the trial courts in their individual Regions as required by the provisions of H.B. 1658 and by the proposed Rules of Administration. Because the Rules of Administration are continuing to undergo revision at this time, the reporting forms cannot be finalized and the Monthly Reports, presently supplied to the Presiding Judges by the Office of Court Administration, will continue to be supplied until such time as the Rules are finally adopted, and the new reporting forms finalized.

The second seminar was more technical in orientation. The administrative assistants worked with the Office of Court Administration to develop software to accomodate the new responsibilities of the Presiding Judges mandated by H.B. 1658. The Office also provided the administrative assistants technical training in various software applications. A third seminar for the administrative assistants is scheduled for early 1987 to provide more extensive training in the use of software applications relating to the mandates of H.B. 1658.

The Presiding Judges held a meeting on July 10 and 11 and considered a set of model rules for regional administration and a set of model local rules of administration for each county. This project is under continuing study at the present time.

Caseflow Management Systems

Concurrently with the consideration of statewide rules by the Task Force and the Supreme Court, the state Office of Court Administration has developed a manual and an automated caseflow management system for use by the trial courts of the state. These systems are designed to provide each trial judge with the necessary management information on cases currently on his docket to properly manage the flow of cases through his court. The present monthly reporting system, which has been developed over the years by the Texas Judicial Council and the state Office of Court Administration, is designed to capture historical information--that is, information primarily concerning cases which have been disposed of by the court. Historical information is invaluable and needed for long range planning, in that it identifies the need for additional courts or the realignment of current judicial districts, the substantial increase or substantial decrease in particular categories of cases filed in the trial courts of this state, and other information which is necessary for the proper planning for the future needs of the judiciary.

On the other hand, the caseflow management system now under development is designed to allow the individual trial judge to monitor the flow of cases through his or her court and to ensure the timely and consistent setting of events in the progression of each case in the court.

The manual system is designed to be used by courts having small numbers of cases filed--less than 600-700 per year--while the automated system can best be utilized by courts having a greater number of filings.

The automated system has been programmed using dBase III language which is one of the most commonly used languages for this type of program and is designed to operate on a common configuration of any number of popular "P.C." computer systems. The Office of Court Administration data processing staff has reviewed this automated equipment and identified the hardware presently on the market which would accomodate the caseflow management system program. They then priced this type of equipment which is available on the Austin market. The result of this research indicated that the necessary automated equipment for a trial court can be purchased for approximately $2,400 to a maximum of $5,000, depending upon the number of cases filed in the court each year and the degree of sophistication desired by each individual judge.

Both systems are currently being "field-tested" by a number of trial courts, and modifications and fine-tuning adjustments are being made to the systems as the need for such are identified through this field-testing. At the end of fiscal year 1986, courts in 57 counties are reviewing or implementing the manual caseflow management system and courts in 67 counties are reviewing or implementing the automated system. This Office is maintaining contact with these courts to provide up-dates and enhancements to both systems as the need for modifications arises.

Seminars on the Caseflow Systems

To introduce the caseflow management system, both manual and automated, to trial judges and trial court personnel, the state Office of Court Administration is conducting a series of one day seminars. Participants at these seminars have included "teams" of judges, district and county clerks, court coordinators, data processing personnel, and other trial court personnel from a geographical cross-section of the state including both urban and rural counties. These seminars will continue until all who wish to attend one have an opportunity to do so. Thus far, 19 seminars have been held with a total attendance of 325 persons, from a total of 146 individual counties. Persons attending have included 66 trial judges, 145 district or county clerks or their deputies, 87 court coordinators, 27 data processing personnel, and 20 other individuals assigned court duties. Those attending these seminars were not reimbursed for their expenses by this Office. Some were able to obtain reimbursement from their counties while others personally paid for their expenses.

A manual on the caseflow management system is used as the principal teaching tool during each of these seminars. In addition, during each seminar, computer terminals are used to provide each participant with "hands-on" experience with the automated caseflow management system.

In June, 1986, the Office also presented the case management systems to approximately 140 court officials and personnel at the statewide District and Court Clerks meeting in Brownsville and at the Court Coordinators Training Seminar in Huntsville.

JUDICIAL AND COURT PERSONNEL TRAINING FUND

House Bill 309, Section 3, of the 69th Legislature (Regular Session) 1985, established the Judicial and Court Personnel Training Fund to be administered by the Supreme Court. The Supreme Court, by Rules of Judicial Education, dated August 31, 1985, created the Judicial Education Executive Committee to administer the fund and named the Office of Court Administration as Secretariat to provide the required personnel and administer resources necessary to implement the Supreme Court Orders.

The program grants continuing judicial education funds to statewide professional associations of judges and other entities whose purpose includes continuing legal education courses, programs, and projects for judges and court personnel. The grantees of such funds must ensure that sufficient funds are available for each judge to meet the minimum educational requirements. No more than one-third of the funds appropriated may be expended for each of the following classifications of judges: Judges of Appellate Courts, District Courts, County Courts at Law, and County Courts performing judicial functions; Justices of the Peace; and Judges of Municipal Courts.

The Judicial Education Executive Committee was created by the Supreme Court to receive recommendations from advisory committees, make recommendations concerning judicial education, and to review and make recommendations concerning grant applications to the Supreme Court. The committee also receives and acts upon requests by judges for emergency waivers of the judicial education requirements.

The members of the Judicial Education Executive Committee are: Hon. Raul A. Gonzalez, Justice of the Supreme Court, as Chairman of the Committee; Hon. Tom G. Davis, Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals; Hon. Robert M. Blackmon, Judge, Nueces County Court at Law; Hon. Robert A. Gammage, Justice, 3rd Court of Appeals; Hon. Richard N. Countiss, Justice, 7th Court of Appeals; Hon. Peter S. Solito, Judge, 164th Judicial District; Hon. Jack Richburg, Justice of the Peace, Dallas County; Hon. C. Edward Miller, Judge, Bowie County; and Hon. Kitty Schild, Judge, City of El Paso.

The Office of Court Administration, in its capacity as Secretariat to the Judicial Education Executive Committee, performs the necessary functions to accomplish the purposes of the programs. Some of these functions are:

1. Design of grant application forms.
2. Process and review grant applications.
3. Review requests for grants and disburse grant funds.
4. Monitor and evaluate grantee compliance, including review of periodic financial and progress reports.
5. Conduct semi-annual onsite audits of grantee financial records, internal controls and goal achievements.

6. Provide informational content for meetings of the Judicial Education Executive Committee.

7. Perform other duties as assigned by the Judicial Education Executive Committee and the Supreme Court.

For fiscal year 1986, the Supreme Court awarded grants totaling $2,035,697 to the following grantees for the amounts indicated:

Texas Center for the Judiciary	$ 679,000
Texas Municipal Courts Assn.	678,698
Justices of the Peace and Constables Assn. of Texas, Inc.	677,999
TOTAL	$2,035,697

These funds have provided training for 2,738 judges and 734 court personnel during the initial reporting period.

JUDICIAL DISTRICTS BOARD

The adoption of Senate Joint Resolution 14 as a constitutional amendment by the voters in November, 1985, established the Judicial Districts Board. The provisions of this constitutional amendment were implemented by Senate Bill 290, 69th Legislature, Regular Session (1985), now Article 199b, V.T.C.S. The Judicial Districts Board is composed of the Chief Justice, who serves as Chairman, the Presiding Judge of the Court of Criminal Appeals, the Presiding Judges of the nine Administrative Judicial Regions, the President of the Texas Judicial Council, and one lawyer to be appointed by the Governor. (This appointment is still pending.) Because no provisions were made to provide a staff or administrative support for this Board, the Supreme Court directed the state Office of Court Administration to provide those functions for the Board.

The Judicial Districts Board held meetings on February 28th, July 12th, and September 23rd, 1986. The Office of Court Administration developed extensive research materials to assist the Board. A resource book was prepared on the docket condition of each county in the state, including the court activity of both district and county level courts in each county.

At the meeting on July 12, 1986, the Board adopted rules to establish procedure and criteria for consideration of redistricting.

After extensive review of reports of caseload activity of each county and each judicial district in the state, examination of geographical distances within the judicial districts, and the availability and use of visiting active, former and senior district judges, the Board made the following findings and recommendations as a report on the condition of the district courts in each administrative judicial region:

Reapportionments Recommended

1ST REGION--HON. RON CHAPMAN, PRESIDING JUDGE:

Judge Chapman reported that the judges of judicial districts in the First Administrative Judicial Region which had a court activity level below the statewide average had all expressed a willingness to serve as visiting judges in other judicial districts in the state which have heavy caseloads. He stated that several possible realignments for the First Region had been examined, but in each instance, a change in districts to relieve a district with an over-average caseload would (1) either cause the new realigned districts to become over-average, or (2) violate the provision of Article 5, Section 7a(f) of the Constitution prohibiting a county having a population as large or larger than the population of the judicial district being reapportioned from being added to the judicial district.

Because of the above factors, Judge Chapman proposed that no redistricting be considered in the judicial districts of the First Administrative Judicial Region.

2ND REGION--HON. THOMAS J. STOVALL, PRESIDING JUDGE:

Judge Stovall recommended the following redistricting in the 2nd Region:

1. Move Robertson County from the 2nd Region to the 3rd Region.
2. Move Austin County from the 3rd Region to the 2nd Region.
3. Remove Fayette County from the 155th Judicial District. (This would have the effect of leaving the 155th to be composed of Austin and Waller Counties.)

3RD REGION--HON. JAMES F. CLAWSON, PRESIDING JUDGE:

In addition to the changes above which would affect the 3rd Region, Judge Clawson recommended the following changes:

1. Fayette County should be added to the 274th Judicial District, in the 3rd Region, and Guadalupe County removed from that District. (The 274th Judicial District would then be composed of Caldwell, Comal, Hays, and Fayette Counties, and Guadalupe County would continue to be served by the 25th and 2nd 25th Judicial Districts.)
2. Remove Blanco County from the 33rd Judicial District. (The 33rd Judicial District would then be composed of Burnet, Llano, Mason, and San Saba Counties.)
3. Add Blanco County to the 22nd Judicial District. (With this change, the 22nd District would be composed of Blanco, Caldwell, Comal, and Hays Counties.)
4. Effective January 1, 1990, remove Somervell County from the 18th and 249th Judicial Districts. (This change would result in these two districts to be composed of Johnson County only.)
5. Effective January 1, 1990, add Somervell County to the 266th Judicial District. (With this change, the 266th District would then be composed of Erath and Somervell Counties.)

6. Effective January 1, 1990, remove Somervell County from the 3rd Region and place it in the 8th Region.

4TH REGION--HON. JOE E. KELLY, PRESIDING JUDGE:

Judge Kelly reported that discussions were held with judges in the Region; however, no satisfactory decisions were reached on possible realignment of the judicial districts. He noted that the increased use of dismissal dockets by the courts in the Region are improving the caseload status of those courts.

5TH REGION--HON. JOE B. EVINS, PRESIDING JUDGE:

Judge Evins reported that no realignment of judicial districts in this Region are recommended because the anticipated population and economic growth in the Region dictate that the alignment of judicial districts at the present should remain the same for future expected caseload growth.

6TH REGION--HON. GEORGE M. THURMOND, PRESIDING JUDGE:

Judge Thurmond reported that the use of former judges visiting on assignment has enabled the 6th Region to deal with the increasing caseload in the Hill Country portion of the Region. No immediate realignment is suggested in that area because of the availability of these former judges. Realignment in the less populated, Western portion of the Region is not indicated because of the vast travel distances between the county seats in that part of the state.

7TH REGION- HON. WELDON KIRK, PRESIDING JUDGE:

Judge Kirk suggested no changes in this Region because the distance between county seats and the large geographic areas covered by judicial districts in the Region preclude consideration of realignment of judicial districts for better balancing of trial court caseload activity.

8TH REGION- HON. CHARLES J. MURRAY, PRESIDING JUDGE:

Judge Murray reported that in the 8th Administrative Judicial Region, the courts in Denton County are becoming critically overloaded, but that a previously created fourth district court for that county will soon become effective and should help to alleviate the workload problem there, if courtroom space can be provided. He concurred with Judge Clawson's suggestion that Somervell County be moved into the 266th Judicial District and the 8th Administrative Region, as noted above under the report on the 3rd Administrative Region.

9TH REGION--HON. RAY D. ANDERSON, PRESIDING JUDGE:

Judge Anderson recommended the following changes in the 9th Administrative Region:

1. Abolish the 154th Judicial District, or move that court designation to another area of the state, upon retirement of the current judge, Pat H. Boone, Jr.
2. Upon the abolishment of the 154th Judicial District, Lamb County should be moved into the 287th Judicial District. (This change would result in the 287th to be composed of Bailey, Lamb, and Parmer Counties.)
3. Remove Crosby County from the 72nd Judicial District. (This would leave the 72nd composed of Lubbock County only.
4. Add Crosby County to the 242nd Judicial District. (This change would result in the 242nd Judicial District to be composed of Castro, Crosby, Hale, and Swisher Counties.)

Statewide Clearinghouse of Judges Available for Assignment

The Judicial Districts Board discussed at some length the situation involving multi-county judicial districts, especially in the West Texas area, which cover large geographical areas, but which have low caseload filings. The Board concluded that because of the importance that a judge remain available for special hearings, motions, etc., on short notice, the geographic size of the present judicial districts should not be enlarged merely to increase the caseload of a particular court. It was determined that those judges whose judicial districts cover large geographic areas, but which have below average caseloads, should annually identify a number of weeks when they would be available for assignments to impacted courts in other areas of the state, especially in the large urban areas, and inform their Presiding Judge of this availability. In turn, the Presiding Judges would establish and cooperatively maintain a statewide clearinghouse system listing the availability of those judges. The names and the availability of these judges would be exchanged periodically among the Presiding Judges.

Conclusion

As a conclusion to the deliberations of the Board, it was noted that the Board confronted a factor it had expected when it began looking at statistical measures for comparison of judicial districts. The deliberations of the Board have emphasized that geography is as important a factor as caseload filings when the goal is to provide services of the courts to the people, particularly when the judges are willing, and are serving, on assignment in areas of the state other than their home districts.

First Report of the Judicial Districts Board

The recommendations of the Board as heretofore indicated were developed into a formal report and submitted to the Lt. Gov. and Speaker of the House for consideration by the 70th Legislature.

COMMITTEE ON THE CODE OF JUDICIAL CONDUCT

In September, 1985, the Supreme Court appointed a Committee chaired by former Chief Justice Jack Pope to study the Code of Judicial Conduct in light of amendments to Article V, Section 1-a, Texas Constitution, effective January 1, 1985. Members of the Committee were: Frank Macias, Justice of the Peace, Clint; John T. Boyd, Justice, 7th Court of Appeals, Amarillo; Joe Burnett, Judge, 134th District Court, Dallas; Oswin Chrisman, Former Judge, Dallas; Richard Countiss, Justice, 7th Court of Appeals, Amarillo; William M. Elliott, Judge, 311th District Court, Houston; Fred S. Harless, Judge, 116th District Court, Dallas; William E. Junell, Justice, 14th Court of Appeals, Houston; Raul Longoria, Judge, 139th District Court, Edinburg; Jay R. Miller, Judge, County Court at Law No. 4, San Antonio; C. L. Ray, Justice, Supreme Court of Texas, Austin; Jack Smith, Justice, 1st Court of Appeals, Houston; Elinor Walters, Municipal Judge, Seabrook; and Bill White, Judge, Court of Criminal Appeals, Austin.

Because no funds were available for the operations of the Committee, the Supreme Court directed the Office of Court Administration to provide staff resources for the work of the Committee.

The Committee conducted an organizational meeting in McAllen on October 3, 1985, during the conference of the Judicial Section, and met in Austin on January 17 and April 11, 1986. On June 18th, it conducted a public hearing at the South Texas School of Law in Houston and met again in Austin on September 4 September 24, 1986, to hear persons who wished to express views and opinions concerning the Code.

In 1965, an amendment to the Texas Constitution was adopted, creating a Judicial Qualifications Commission. In 1984, Texas amended Article V, Section 1-a of the Constitution to change the name of the Commission to the State Commission on Judicial Conduct and to add three forms of improper judicial conduct to the jurisdiction of the Commission. They are: willful violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct, willful or persistent violation of rules promulgated by the Supreme Court, and incompetence in performing the duties of office.

As a result of these amendments, the Code of Judicial Conduct has the force of law. The Committee chaired by former Chief Justice Pope was appointed to study the Code in this light. Particularly, the Committee has examined the many provisions of the Code to determine whether they are too vague. Recommendations received by the Committee, for the most part, related to provisions that were already contained in the Code. In varying forms, suggestions were received for prohibiting the solicitation or acceptance of any gift, benefit, entertainment, transportation, service, or special privilege when the acceptance of the thing reasonably leads to the impression that the individual or group is in a special position to influence a judge. The Committee was of the opinion that Canon 5C(4) of the present Code is clear in its prohibition of such things.

The Committee found that the Code does not state clar standards concerning private communications by or with judges or confidentiality that judges must maintain concerning pending or impending cases. Amendments to Canons 3A(5) and 3A(6) were recommended to provide better standards.

It was recommended that Canon 8, the compliance part of the Code, be changed to include a complete list of judges who by law must comply with the Code.

The Committee also found that non-judge lawyer candidates for judicial office are now free to do and say things that an incumbent judge can not, and recommended this situation should be resolved by requiring the lawyer candidate to conform to the same standard by adding an additional ground for discipline of lawyers in the State Bar Rules.

STANDARDIZED FELONY JUDGMENT FORMS

Senate Bill 845, passed by the 1985 session of the Legislature, directed the Office of Court Administration to prepare "...a standardized felony judgment form that conforms to the requirements..." of this bill and to distribute it to all district courts.

To enable this Office to respond to this directive, Judge Tom Davis of the Court of Criminal Appeals was asked to serve as the chairman of an advisory committee to formulate the standardized judgment forms. Serving with Judge Davis on this advisory committee were: Joe Kegans, 230th District Judge, Houston; Bob Jones, 167th District Judge, Austin; Thomas B. Thorpe, 203rd District Judge, Dallas; Ernie Ernst, 12th District Judge, Huntsville, Carl Dally, State Prosecuting Attorney's Office, Austin; and Bill Black, 146th District Judge, Belton.

The committee considered all suggestions and recommendations received concerning the project. As a result of its deliberations, the committee determined that only those elements which are specifically mandated by the statute should be included in the standarized forms. The committee expressed the view that other information, which may be helpful to and needed by various state agencies, could be included in a separate document attached to the judgment.

The forms developed set forth certain standard information which should appear at the beginning of all judgments and does not supplant the usual recitations required by law to be set forth in felony judgments.

Copies of the standarized forms as developed by this committee were supplied to all district judges in the state in September, 1985.

SUPPORT TO OTHER AGENCIES

The Office continues to provide information on the Judicial Branch of Government and court activities to many other state agencies and professional organizations whose work requires a knowledge of the workings of the judiciary and to many individual citizens. It maintains contact with the state court administrative offices of other states and with the American Judicature Society, the National Center for State Courts, and other national organizations, to keep abreast of new develoments in the administraiton of justice in other states and to provide them with information on the Texas Judicial System.

State Commission on Judicial Conduct

(Report prepared and submitted by Robert C. Flowers, Executive Director.)

Role of the State Commission on Judicial Conduct

With the addition of retired judges and masters during fiscal year 1986, pursuant to Constitutional amendment, the State Commission on Judicial Conduct (hereinafter called Commission) assumed jurisdiction over more than 3,000 judges and judicial officers in Texas.

Those who currently come under Commission purview include justices on the Supreme Court of Texas and the Court of Criminal Appeals; justices on all courts of appeals; judges on district courts, including retired judges and masters; judges on county courts and county courts-at-law; justices of the peace and municipal court judges.

The Commission's primary role is threefold:

- to preserve the integrity of all judges in the state;
- to ensure public confidence in the judiciary; and
- to encourage judges to maintain high standards of both professional and personal conduct.

In attaining those objectives, the Commission in fiscal year 1986 handled 440 complaints. A variety of sanctions were employed, ranging from public reprimands to private admonitions. In other instances, the Commission dismissed cases wherein the judge initiated corrective action or improved procedures or policies.

Authority for Operation of the Commission

The Commission's activities are governed by Article V, Section 1-a of the Texas Constitution and Chapter 33 of the Texas Government Code.

Texas was the second state to perceive the need of an agency to which the public could turn in the event of judicial misconduct. It was in 1965 that the people of Texas approved the constitutional amendment that first created the Commission, known at that time as the Judicial Qualifications Commission. Now, every state in the union has such a judicial disciplinary agency.

In 1984, Texans authorized the inclusion of retired judges and masters in Commission jurisdiction, expanded disciplinary alternatives available to the Commission, and clarified procedures for removal. The most recent Constitutional changes added three categories of improper judicial conduct:

1. The willful or persistent violation of the rules promulgated by the Supreme Court of Texas;
2. Incompetence in performing the duties of office; and,
3. Willful violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct.

The public's attitude toward the work of the Commission was evidenced by the fact that this amendment passed by the largest majority of any of the several amendments offered. The amendment affecting the Commission became effective on January 1, 1985, four months into fiscal year 1986.

Under the provisions of the Constitution and the statute currently in operation, the Commission does not have authority to change the decision of any court or to act as an appellate review board. The Commission does not give legal advice. The Commission does not act upon allegations against a judge for reaching a legal decision, making findings of fact, or applying the law as the judge understands it. The Commission may dismiss a complaint or may order a public or private warning, a public or private admonition, or a public or private reprimand. A judge may be required to undergo physical or psychiatric examination, or to obtain additional education. A judge charged with a felony criminal offense or a misdemeanor involving misconduct in office may be suspended with or without pay. The Commission may seek the removal or censure of a judge. The Commission has subpoena power, which is enforceable by contempt on order of a district court.

Cause for the removal of a judge is willful or persistent conduct that is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of duties or casts public discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justice. Improper conduct includes, but is not limited to:

1. Failure to execute the business of the court in a timely manner;
2. Willful violation of a provision of the Texas Penal Code or the Code of Judicial Conduct;
3. Persistent or willful violation of the rules of the Supreme Court of Texas, and
4. Incompetence in the performance of the duties of office.

The Commission condemns the actions of judges who abuse the authority inherent in their positions or who are rude or disrespectful to those appearing in their courts.

Both the Constitution and the statute have a requirement for confidentiality concerning the work of the Commission. This is based, in part, upon the Commission's mandate to uphold the public's confidence in the judiciary.

Examples of Proper Conduct

-- One complaint was that the judge refused to permit a defendant to file motions through the court-appointed attorney.

-- The complainant had written letters to the judge regarding a pending guardianship, but the judge took no action because no proper motions had been filed.

-- A divorced parent complained that the judge was "obviously" in collusion with the other parent because the judge's rulings were consistently in favor of the other parent. Such rulings are within the discretion of the judge.

-- A plaintiff in small claims court alleged that he had not been able to get a judge to set a hearing in three years. Inquiry revealed that the defendant had fled the area and the service process had not been perfected. The case was dismissed for lack of prosecution.

-- The judge put a father in jail for non-payment of child support. The judge was acting within his discretion.

-- A judge dismissed many criminal cases; all fell under provisions of the Speedy Trial Act.

-- A judge granted probation in a DWI case after the new statute required jail time; the offense occurred while the old statute was in effect and, thus, the old law applied.

Examples of Improper Conduct

During the fiscal year 1986, the Commission issued four public reprimands, 13 private reprimands, and 31 private admonishments. In 21 instances, an official sanction was avoided through the judge having taken corrective action or changed court porcedures.

Examples of improper conduct included findings that:

-- A judge accompanied local law enforcement officers to the scene of a then undefined incident, after having imbibed of alcoholic beverages.

-- A judge participated with local law enforcement officers in effecting arrests of certain individuals and in conducting searches of certain residences in an apartment complex.

-- A judge, while driving in an unmarked pickup truck, chased down and stopped, on a public street, a lone woman driver whom the judge alleged ran a yield sign within his view. The judge identified himself to the woman by giving her his calling card showing him to be a judge, commenced a loud argument with her and attracted the attention of a passing policeman.

-- A judge intervened in the dispute between his brother and a contractor by assisting his brother in preparation of a disorderly conduct complaint against the contractor, and by issuing a warrant for the contractor's arrest bases on the complaint. The contractor was arrested, jailed, and then taken before the judge who conducted a magistrate's hearing and heard, or attempted to hear the case on its merit.

-- A judge, during the course of a Commission inquiry, learned of a person's offer to assist on the Commission's investigation, and threatened the person with loss of job and criminal prosecution unless he revealed to the judge the evidential matters involved.

-- A judge ordered a sentence to begin at a time earlier than the date on which the sentence was pronounced, and in at least one instance, the sentence was ordered to begin even prior to the time the offense was committed. The Commission found that the above indicated sentencing practice was misleading to the public because it created an appearance that the convicted defendant had served time in custody which, in fact, had not been served.

Procedures of the Commission on Judicial Conduct

The Constitutional and statutory provisions described in the section on "Authority," together with the Rules and Regulations for the Removal or Retirement of Judges promulgated by the Texas Supreme Court, make up the procedural framework within which the Commission operates.

A file is initiated by a written complaint. Since the Commission's work is confidential in nature and not widely publicized, a telephone inquiry is often the first step in filing a complaint. If the caller has possible grounds for a complaint, he is sent an outline of policies and procedures, together with an affidavit form. While the complaint may be sworn to, the Commission also considers letters and news clippings as the basis for opening a file. Occasionally, the Commission itself may be the complainant in a case where the actions of a judge are reported by the news media and appear to be possible misconduct, or appear to bring discredit upon the judiciary.

When a complaint is received, a file is established and reviewed by the executive director. The case is analyzed and assigned to a staff attorney/investigator, who likewise reviews the allegations. That preliminary screening determines whether further investigation is expedient. Many complaints are in reality against law enforcement officers, corrections officials, lawyers, clerks, or even the federal judiciary. In these cases, the complainant is notified that the Commission has no jurisdiction in the matter. In other cases, the complainant may be disgruntled with a judge's decision, particularly in highly emotionally charged litigation such as divorce/custody cases or criminal trials. Such matters are properly matters for appeal, and the judge's good faith decision, even if it is in error, is not judicial misconduct. In all cases, the complainant is notified by mail that his complaint has been received. If the complaint is vague in its allegations, the complainant may be asked for more specific detail, or staff may request additional documentation.

If, after screening a preliminary investigation, it still appears possible that misconduct may have occurred, the judge is informed, in writing, that an investigation has commenced and of the nature of the matters being investigated. The judge may be requested to respond to specific inquiries, in writing, or to provide legal authority for his actions. Facts may be further investigated on-site, or through telephone interviews. At times, the Commission may request investigative assistant from other agencies such as the Department of Public Safety, Ranger Service, or a district attorney's office.

Each complaint is briefed by staff and presented to the Commission as a whole along with any investigative results when it meets in Austin every other month. The Commission may at that time request additional investigation, or it may ask that the judge provide further information. The Commission may also dismiss the case at its first presentation, in which case both the judge and the complainant are so advised.

The judge may be invited to appear informally under non-advisory conditions to have dialogue with the Commission, or to explain his actions. If a judge elects to appear, the meeting with the Commission is confidential in accordance with Constitutional requirements unless the judge chooses to open the meeting. The judge may invite friends or family, or legal counsel if he wishes. If the judge wishes to introduce the testimony of others, it must, at this point, be written. The judge may testify only under oath.

In a situation where a judge is suspended because of pending criminal charges, the Commission may decide to postpone action on the matter until after the conclusion of the criminal proceedings. At that time, the Commission would then undertake its own examination of the situation. The Commission would not seek to determine the guilt or innocence of the judge beyond a reasonable doubt, but rather whether, by a preponderance of the evidence, the judge had brought discredit upon the judiciary by his actions or engaged in willful or persistent conduct which is clearly inconsistent with the proper performance of his duties.

The Commission may choose to dismiss a case for a variety of reasons--lack of available proof, outside the jurisdiction of the Commission, the judge acted within his discretion, or that the judge's actions did not rise to the level of judicial misconduct. Sometimes, corrective action is taken by the judge which will avoid the imposition of sanctions.

A private admonition is the least onerous of all sanctions that may be imposed by the Commission. An admonition is a letter to the judge suggesting that a given action by him had been inappropriate or that another action may have been a better approach to the particular situation.

A private warning is stronger than an admonition, and a private reprimand is stronger still, spelling out the finding of judicial misconduct, and enumerating the reasons that such conduct is improper or brings discredit upon the judiciary or the administration of justice.

A public admonition or warning would be the same nature as a private admonition or warning, except that it would be released to the press in the interest of orderly administration of justice and/or reassuring the public that confidence in the integrity of the judiciary is deserved.

Most serious of all these sanctions is the public reprimand, which is issued when the Commission believes that a judge has committed serious misconduct, and both the public and the judiciary would be best served by a public statement of the judge's misconduct.

In cases of judicial discipline, the Commission considers that the purposes of sanctions are not to secure vengeance retribution, or punishment of any individual. Rather, the purposes of sanctions are to deter any similar misconduct by judges in the future, to promote proper administration of justice, and certainly to reassure the public that the judicial system in this state neither permits nor condones misconduct. The judiciary of this state, even those sanctioned, are dedicated to the principal of government through rule of law and are deserving of continued confidence in their honor and integrity.

No santion is issued by the Commission unless the judge involved has been advised of the nature of the allegations and has been afforded an opportunity to respond.

Should the Commission determine that formal proceedings for removal are in order, the veil of confidentiality is lifted upon the convening of a formal hearing, and the hearing would be public. A formal hearing is an adjudicative proceeding in which the judge is entitled to due process of law in the same manner that any person whose property rights are in jeopardy. The Commission would seek the appointment of a master by the Supreme Court. After a public hearing, with the master presiding, the master would make findings of fact. The Commission would then dismiss, publicly censure, or forward the findings, with a recommendation for removal. In the event of a recommendation of removal, the Supreme Court would appoint a seven-judge tribunal made up of justices from the Courts of Appeals throughout the state. The tribunal is chosen by lot by the Chief Justice of the Supreme Court. Appeal from a decision of the tribunal would be directly to the Supreme Court, which would consider the case under the substantial evidence rule.

Judges who are removed or involuntarily retired by the Supreme Court may be prohibited from holding judicial office in the future, and are not eligable for judicial retirement benefits.

In every case, the complainant is notified of the conclusion of his case in accordance with statutory requirements. In situations where a public sanction has been taken, the complainant is provided with a copy of that public document.

Legislative Concerns of the Commission

During fiscal years 1985 and 1986, the Commission considered some situations wherein the action of a judge raised considerable public outcry, yet may have been within the letter of the law, or in which the law was unclear. Other complaints involved actions of a judge that occurred within a grey area of the law, or where the law was apparently inconsistent. In some of these instances, the Commission reserved action, determining instead to call these issues to the attention of the Legislature. Since a general session of the Legislature was not held in 1986, the following legislative concerns are respectfully resubmitted:

(1) There is a question as to the propriety of certain "innovative" sentencing practices by a number of judges at different levels throughout the State, who impose as a condition of probation a requirement that a criminal defendant pay monies to a "fund" administered by the court or to specific charities designated by the court. The required payments are distinct and apart from any other fine, restitution, reparation or probation fees authorized by statute. The practice in question may be gaining in popularity and could have a substantial effect in reducing income into state and local coffers from traditional fines and court costs. The practice is based on the provisions of Sections 6(a) of both Art. 42.12 and 42.13 of the Code of Criminal Procedure which provide, in the pertinent parts, that, "Terms and conditions of probation may include, but shall not be limited to. . ." (it is also noted that Art. 45.54 of the Code contains a related provision which allows the justice to require that a defendant, ". . . comply with any other reasonable condition. . .").

In one instance, in a county which is not among the State's more populous counties, the Commission observed that more than $188,000 was accumulated in a fund which was available for distribution by the judge. The money was being used for such diverse items as salary supplements, equipment for the sheriff's office, scholarships for county personnel to attend continuing education programs, rape crisis centers, computer equipment and software, consultant fees, etc. Probationers may be required to make one-time or continuing payments. It is obvious that the practice in question not only makes large amounts of money available to the judiciary for discretionary appropriation, but does so in direct competition with the established system of fines and court costs and to the detriment of traditional budget-making responsibilities at the state and local level.

How far does a judge's discretion extend in establishing conditions for probation? A current attorney general's opinion, JM-307, states that contributions are permissible so long as the contribution is directly related to protection of the public and rehabilitation of the probationer . If a fine is ordered, and a contribution as well, may the contribution exceed the fine? May a judge order a contribution in lieu of a fine, so that money which should have gone into the county's general fund to defray the costs of government goes instead to a private charity or cultural organization? May a judge order a contribution to a fund which he controls, and which is used to supplement county salaries or provide government services not budgeted by the appropriate legislative authority?

(2) Through utilization of the electorate as its selection method for judges, Texas subjects its judiciary each election year to public scrutiny, and, occasionally, to scurrilous attack. Politically embattled incumbent judges face the choice of responding with silence, possibly suffering defeat at the polls, or responding in kind, dropping the robe of judicial demeanor the better to engage in mud slinging.

May a candidate for judicial office running against an incumbent judge pursue a course of hard-hitting campaign advertising, while the incumbent judge is held to a judicial ethic of understatement and restraint? How far may an incumbent judge go in public attack upon his opponent? Should all judicial candidates be required to honor judicial ethics? A bitter campaign does not enhance the integrity of the judiciary as a whole, yet the Commission has no authority over a candidate who is not yet a judge.

In Kentucky, when a person announces as a candidate for judge, he comes under the jurisdiction of the judicial discipline agency, so that both parties in these races are held to a high level of judicial ethics in the conduct of the race.

The integrity of the judiciary suffers whether or not the charges hurled in a heated political campaign are truthful. Each election year, the Commission receives complaints that incumbent judges are engaging in unfair political practices in their re-election campaigns.

(3) As mentioned in previous annual reports, the Commission desires clarification of its authority to afford judges an opportunity to appear at Commission meetings prior to the initiation of formal proceedings. Virtually since the Commission came into being, it has invited judges in appropriate cases to appear informally to respond to allegations of misconduct. In many instances, the informal appearance by a judge has enabled the Commission to dispose of a complaint in a more timely and effective manner than would otherwise have been possible. Moreover, even though the appearance is informal, the judge's rights are protected since the judge can be, and often is, represented by counsel. Then the 68th Legislature in 1983 passed House Bill 44, which made some comprehensive changes to the statutory provisions governing Commission operations. One clause of that rather extensive amendment has introduced some confusion into the law and appears to be in conflict with other provisions of existing law as well as with constitutional due process requirements. While the Commission believes that the clause in question does not preclude the long-established practice of informal appearances, clarifying legislation would be in order. The Commission was gratified to note that during the last Legislative Session, companion bills were introduced in both the House and the Senate (H.B. 1483 by Tejeda, and S.B. 701 by Mauzy) in an effort to insure that the statutory provisions were clear and in conformity with constitutional due process requirements. Although no opposition to either bill was observed, the Legislative Session ended prior to passage of either bill. The Commission appreciated the legislative efforts and requests their continuation in the next session.

Annual Statistical Data

In fiscal year 1986, the Commission handled 440 cases, a 13.07 per cent increase over the 390 disposed of during fiscal year 1985. Of the cases disposed of in fiscal year 1986, the Commission ordered sanctions in a total of 56 cases and 20 judges appeared informally before the Commission.

Total Caseload	440	Monitor	8
Cases Dismissed	325	Resignation/ Retirement*	7
Corrective Action	21	Additional Education	1
Private Admonishment	31	Suspensions	4
Private Warning	0	Pending End of Year	26
Private Reprimand	13
Public Reprimand	4

The Composition of the Commission

With the implementation of the new Constitutional amendment, there are eleven members currently serving on the Commission. Serving on staggered six-year terms will be one justice of a Court of Appeals, one district judge, one county court at law judge, one justice of the peace, and one municipal court judge, all of whom are appointed by the Supreme Court of Texas. In addition, the Board of the State Bar of Texas appoints two members of the State Bar, each of whom has practiced for at least ten consecutive years. Finally, the Governor appoints four citizens who are not lawyers or judges and who are at least 30 years of age. Appointees must reside in different geographic areas of the state and must be approved by the Senate.

*Judges counted in this category resigned in lieu of further Commission action. The Commission appreciates that the majority of judges who resign or retire, do so to conclude an honorable judicial career.

ADVISORY OPINIONS ON JUDICIAL ETHICS
Rendered During the Year Ending August 31, 1986

At the request of the members of the Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas, the Supreme Court promulgated a Code of Judicial Conduct, effective September 1, 1974. On November 9, 1976, responding to a resolution of the Judicial Section, certain amendments to the Code were adopted.

The Judicial Section of the State Bar of Texas has appointed a Committee on Judicial Ethics to render advisory opinions on the Code of Judicial Conduct. The opinions of this committee that were handed down during state fiscal year 1986 are reproduced below.

OPINION NO. 82

Question: May judges support a county bond election, designated a "law and order election," to fund an expanded and improved jail facility, a new county criminal courts building, and renovation and improvement of civil district and family courts facilities?

Answer: Yes, with certain limitations. Canon 4 of the Code of Judicial Conduct permits a judge to engage in activities to improve the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice. However, Canon 4 also sets forth certain limitations, "subject to the proper performance of his judicial duties, [a judge] may engage in [such duties], if in doing so he does not cast doubt on his capacity to decide impartially any issue that may come before him."

A possible second limitation may occur if the "law and order" bond issue is not segregated from other issues which do not pertain to law improvement, the legal system and the administration of justice. In our Opinion No. 64, this committee was of the opinion that it would be unethical for a judge to actively support a bond election to raise funds to develop a city water project. If the "law and order" bond issue is submitted with other issues and not segregated, ethical considerations may become involved. See Canon 5.

A possible third limitation may occur depending upon what the judges mean by "support" the bond election. To support a bond issue connotes much more than a mere endorsement. Canon 1 states, "A judge should uphold the integrity and independence of the judiciary." Canon 2 states, "A judge should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety." Canon 7 states, "A judge should refrain from political activity inappropriate to his office."

Your committee is of the opinion that proper facilities and equipment for courts and jails are essential to the legal system and the proper administration of justice.

Subject to the limitations set forth above, a majority of the committee is of the opinion that it would not be unethical to support a bond issue for those purposes enumerated in the posed question.

OPINION NO. 83

Question: Would a judge violate the Code of Judicial Conduct by appointing an attorney to represent indigents, if the attorney is an employee of a law firm consisting of the judge's father, brother, and the attorney receiving the appointments? All fees paid to the attorney for the judicial appointments would benefit the law firm.

Answer: Canon 3B(4) states in pertinent part as follows:

> [A judge] should exercise his power of appointment only on the basis of merit, avoiding nepotism and favoritism. He should not approve compensation of appointees beyond the fair value of services rendered.

Although the appointment of a father's or brother's employee would not be nepotism, such action would indirectly accomplish that which cannot be done directly. It violates the spirit of Canon 3B(4) and could be considered favoritism.

Canon 2 states that a judge should avoid impropriety and the appearance of impropriety in all of his activities.

Your committee is of the opinion that judicial appointments made under the factual situation posed would violate the Code of Judicial Conduct.

OPINION NO. 84

Question: Prior to becoming a district judge, an attorney served as a trustee for many years in a trust created by a law associate for the benefit of the law associate's wife's grandchildren. May the judge ethically continue to serve as a trustee after he has taken his oath of office.

Answer: No. Canon 5D of the Code of Judicial Conduct states, "A judge should not serve as... [A] trustee...except for the...Trust...of a member of his family; and then only if service will not interfere with the proper performance of his duties."

Although the judge and the beneficiaries of the trust obviously enjoy a warm and cordial relationship, the beneficiaries are not members of the judge's family. Canon 5D is quite clear, and to continue as trustee would be a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct, Canon 5D.

OPINION NO. 85

Question: May a judge serve on a charitable educational trust (consisting of 5 trustees) created for the sole purpose of funding student summer educational internships to study in a specific United States Congressman's District office during the summer. The trust will bear the name of a former Congressman of the district who is now deceased. The trustees will not be involved in fund raising and their names will not be used in solicitation attempts.

Answer: Canon 5 admonishes judges to regulate their extra-judicial activities to minimize the risk of conflict with their judicial duties. However, Canon 5B expressly states that judges may serve as trustees of an educational or charitable organization not conducted for economic or political advantage of its members, subject to the following limitations enumerated in Canons 5B(1), B(2), and B(3). Judges should not serve: (1) if the organization would regularly appear in any court in adversary proceedings; and (2) they should not solicit funds, or use or permit the use of the prestige of their offices for that purpose, or be a speaker or guest of honor at an organization's fund raising events; and (3) they may not give investment advice to such organization even though they may serve on a board which is responsible for approving investment decisions.

Subject to the limitations set forth in Canons 5B(1), B(2), and B(3), the committee is of the opinion that it would not be a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct to serve as a trustee in the described organization.

OPINION NO. 86

Question: May judges serve in an advisory capacity to a public board or task force, where in all probability they will later preside over cases arising out of the crisis or problem for which the board or task force was created to solve.

Answer: Judges should regulate their activities to minimize the risk of conflict with the proper performance of their judicial duties. Canon 4 applies this admonition to judges' activities to improve the law, the legal system, and the administration of justice. Canons 5A, 5B, and 5D apply this same admonition to judges' extra-judicial activities. Canon 3 states, "The judicial duties of a judge take precedence over all his other activities."

A majority of the committee is of the opinion that it would be a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct for judges knowingly to agree to serve on or to continue to serve on such a board or task force, if in serving, a conflict with the proper performance of their judicial duties probably would arise or does arise. One judge dissented.

OPINION NO. 87

Question: May retired or former judges, who have elected to accept judicial assignments under former Art. 200a, Sec. 5a, V.T.C.S. (now Art. 200a-1, Sec. 4.014(3), V.T.C.S.) ethically permit the use of their names on a law firm's stationary without the phrase "of counsel" or a similar phrase.

Answer: The question submitted requires a legal construction of Sec. 44.005, of Title 110B, Public Retirement Systems, which is entitled "Ineligibility to Practice Law." Your judicial ethics committee is not authorized to give legal opinions. However, the committee would observe that if a construction of Sec. 44.005 should hold that retired or former judges, who have elected to subject themselves to judicial assignment, are ineligible to practice law; then, to permit the use of their names on a law firm's stationary without proper qualifying language would be a violation of the Code of Judicial Conduct, Canon 2A. The essence of Canon 2A is that a judge should respect and comply with the law, thereby avoiding improprieties and the appearance of improprieties.

COURT ACTIVITY: SUMMARIES AND ANALYSES

L Cecile Bagan

McCULLOCH COUNTY COURTHOUSE
BRADY, TEXAS

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Regarding appellate courts, temporary emergencies such as illness of a judge or unusually burdensome cases may distort the statistical picture. In addition, there is no reliable way to ascertain the time spent by appellate or trial judges in study or research in the composing of their opinions and decisions.

At least four factors are not represented in the district court statistics presented and should be borne in mind when evaluating judicial output:

1. One very complicated case may consume an inordinate amount of time compared to less complicated cases.
2. The judges of district courts in most non-metropolitan areas spend more time traveling between different counties comprising a single district than do their metropolitan counterparts, and a metropolitan complex of many judges of identical jurisdiction permits judicial efficiencies not available in non-metropolitan areas.
3. Judges have to spend many hours on administrative matters and other judicial functions not reported in this statistical report, e.g., preparing and submitting the necessary budget requests for the operation of the court to the county commissioners, impaneling grand juries, petit jury requirements, supervision of the Adult Probation and County Auditors departments, juvenile board duties and responsibilities and many other duties not related to their judicial functions.
4. In lieu of a conviction and sentence, present statutes authorize a judge to place defendants on "deferred adjudication" and to impose conditions similar to those of regular probation. A case in which deferred adjudication is granted remains on the docket as a pending case and does not appear as a disposition in court statistics until the defendant has completed all conditions of deferred adjudication and the case is dismissed, or the defendant is sentenced upon failure to comply with the conditions imposed, even though it requires both time and resources of the court.

The county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges, especially, spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have nonjudicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

The court activity in this report contains the reported activity from all district and county level courts as reported to this office by the district and county clerks. However, not all justices of the peace and municipal courts have reported their activity. Therefore, when analyzing the court activity of these courts, it is important to note that the reported activity does not reflect all of the activity of all of the justices of the peace or municipal courts.

One final caution: because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

TEXAS COURT ACTIVITY

Overview of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1986

APPELLATE COURTS

Supreme Court

The Supreme Court added more applications for writs of error and other writs and motions to its dockets, and disposed of more matters than during any previous 12-month period.

The Court "passed on" (disposed of or otherwise acted upon) a total of 2,169 matters during the year which ended August 31, 1986, an increase of 13 percent over the number of matters passed on during the previous year and 28.8 percent more than the 10-year average. These 2,169 dispositions represented 82 percent of the total matters on the Court's docket.

Court of Criminal Appeals

The Court of Criminal Appeals disposed of 4,511 matters during the year, a slight decrease from the 4,558 matters disposed during the previous year. These 4,511 dispositions represented 66 percent of the total matters on the Court's docket.

Death penalty appeals for the year ending August 31, 1986 numbered 35, compared to 42 in fiscal year 1986.

Courts of Appeals

For the fourth consecutive year, the 14 Courts of Appeals reduced their total pending caseloads during state fiscal year 1986, which ended August 31, 1986.

The Courts disposed of 8,161 total cases during the year, an average of 102 dispositions (56 criminal and 46 civil) per justice. These dispositions reduced the pending caseload from 5,684 at the beginning of the fiscal year to 5,355 at the end of the year, a decrease of 5.8 percent. These pending causes on August 31, 1986, included 3,488 criminal cases and 1,867 civil cases.

Approximately 45 percent of all cases filed in the Courts of Appeals were filed in the two Houston and one Dallas Courts.

The average length of time between the filing of a criminal case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition was 8.6 months. However, the average lapse of time between submission of a criminal appeal and its disposition was 1.3 months. A case is "submitted" when the court hears oral argument or when it is referred to the justices for formal consideration if no oral argument is heard.

Fifty percent of the pending criminal cases in the Courts of Appeals had been on the docket less than 6 months, 37 percent from 6 to 12 months, and 13 percent more than 12 months.

On August 31, 1986, 1,867 civil cases were pending on the dockets of the Courts of Appeals, 14 percent fewer than the 2,180 pending on September 1, 1985. Of those civil cases pending on August 31, 1986, 56 percent had been on the docket less than 6 months, 34 percent from 6 to 12 months, and 10 percent for more than 12 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a civil case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition was 7.9 months. The average lapse of time from the submission of a civil case to its disposition was 2.2 months.

Burglary cases comprise the single largest category of criminal cases handled by the district courts during the year. There were 31,408 burglary cases disposed of -- 23 percent of all criminal case dispositions.

Divorce comprised the single largest category of civil cases handled by the district courts. There were 139,265 divorce cases disposed -- 31 percent of all civil case dispositions.

During the year ending August 31, 1986, the 374 district courts disposed of a total of 607,571 cases, 50 percent of the total number of cases on their docket. While the number of new criminal cases filed increased 15.5 percent above 1985, civil cases decreased 7.1 percent and juvenile cases decreased 2.2 percent.

An average of 1,625 causes per judge were disposed of during the year. The total of pending causes on August 31, 1986 -- 605,848 -- was reduced 5.4 percent from the 639,848 pending on September 1, 1985. This is the first reduction of the district courts' pending caseload since 1966. Civil cases pending decreased by 7 percent, criminal cases pending decreased by 3 percent, and juvenile cases pending decreased by 18 percent. The district courts increased dismissals for want of prosecution from 64,440 cases dismissed in fiscal 1985 to 102,407 cases dismissed in fiscal 1986 -- 37,967 more cases -- an increase of 59 percent.

County-Level Courts

The 412 county-level courts disposed of a total of 461,935 criminal and 102,027 civil cases during the year ended August 31, 1986, compared to 435,327 criminal and 86,227 civil cases disposed of during the previous year.

SUPREME COURT

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1986

The Supreme Court of Texas is the highest state court for civil appeals and promulgates rules of administration and civil procedure for the courts of Texas. It is comprised of the Chief Justice and eight justices.

The Court "passed on" (disposed of or otherwise acted upon) a total of 2,169 matters during fiscal 1986, an increase of 13 percent over the 1,920 matters passed on in fiscal 1985 and 28.8 percent more than the 10-year average of 1,684.

Regular Causes

The 139 regular causes added to the Court's docket were 21.9 percent less than the 178 regular causes added in fiscal 1985 but 13 percent more than the 10 year average of 123.

The 140 regular causes disposed of were 12.5 percent less than the 160 disposed of in fiscal 1985 but 15.7 percent more than the 10-year average of 121. One hundred thirteen of the regular causes disposed of during 1986 came to the Court on application for writ of error from one of the 14 Courts of Appeals. Of those 113 dispositions, the lower courts were reversed in whole or in part in 94 causes, or 83.2 percent. This compares to 76.6 percent reversals in fiscal 1985.

The 29 regular causes (not including motions for rehearing) left pending at the end of fiscal 1986 represented 16.7 percent of the total number of regular causes added during the year or carried over from the previous year. This is 13 causes fewer than the 10-year average of 42 pending causes. At the end of fiscal 1985, 34 regular causes had been pending in the Court.

Applications for Writs of Error

The 1,044 applications for writs of error filed during fiscal 1986 represented a 4.6 percent increase over the 998 applications filed in fiscal 1985, and was 20 percent more than the 10-year average of 867.

The 982 applications for writs of error disposed of during the year was 3.5 percent less than the 1,018 disposed of during fiscal 1985, and a 15.9 percent increase over the 10-year average of 847. Of those 982 applications disposed of, 113 (or 11.5) percent were granted.

The 350 applications for writs of error left pending at the end of fiscal 1986 represented 26.3 percent of the total number of such applications filed during the year or carried over from the previous year. This is 131 more pending applications than the 10-year average of 219 pending applications. At the end of fiscal 1985, 288 applications for writs of error had been pending in the Court.

Other Writs and Motions

The 1,047 other writs and motions filed during fiscal 1986 were 39.4 percent more than the 751 filed during fiscal 1985. This is 331 more than the 10-year average of 716 other writs and motions filed.

The 1,047 other writs and motions disposed of during fiscal 1986 were 41.1 percent more than the 742 disposed during fiscal 1985. This is 332 more dispositions than the 10-year average of 715 dispositions.

The 102 other writs and motions left pending by the Court at the end of fiscal 1986 represented 8.9 percent of the total number of other writs and motions filed during the year or carried over from the previous year. This compares to a 10-year average of 9.1 percent. At the end of fiscal 1985, 102 other writs and motions had been pending in the Court.

Opinions Written

During fiscal year 1986, the justices of the Supreme Court wrote 179 opinions (or an average of 19.9 opinions each), 17.5 percent less than the 217 opinions written in fiscal 1985 but 8.5 percent more than the 10-year average of 165. Of the opinions written in 1986, 131 (or 73.2 percent) were deciding opinions which disposed of causes.

During fiscal 1986, the Supreme Court heard oral argument of 93 causes and considered an additional 47 causes submitted on briefs.

* "Regular Causes" are reported in a separate category because they are the cases which pass through most, if not all, of the steps of the regular appellate decision-making process. Regular causes are cases in which oral argument of counsel in open court is received (unless waived) and in which the Court's decision is usually reported in a written opinion. Most are reviewed in conference by the Supreme Court, before oral argument and decision, upon application for writ of error, with three or more of the justices voting that the decision of the Court of Appeals was erroneous and that the writ therefore should be granted. A similar procedure is followed regarding petitions for original mandamus and habeas corpus, which become "Regular Causes" only after review and vote in conference. "Cases Other Than Regular Causes" include such actions as the Court's rejection in conference of an application for writ of error or application to file a petition for original mandamus or habeas corpus. This category is obviously larger than that of regular causes.

COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS
Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1986

The Court of Criminal Appeals is the highest state court for criminal appeals and is composed of a Presiding Judge and eight judges. Additionally, pursuant to sec. 22.106 of the Texas Government Code, special commissioners may be designated to aid and assist the court as needed.

Until September 1, 1981, the Court of Criminal Appeals received all criminal cases appealed from the district and county-level trial courts of the State. On that date, a constitutional amendment and implementing legislation became effective which conferred on the 14 Courts of Appeals intermediate appellate jurisdiction in all criminal cases except those in which the death penalty was assessed. Appeal of death penalty cases remains direct to the Court of Criminal Appeals.

Decisions of the Courts of Appeals in criminal cases may be appealed to the Court of Criminal Appeals by petition for discretionary review, filed either by the State, or the defendant, or both. In addition, the Court may review a decision on its own motion.

Matters Added to the Docket

During the state fiscal year 1986 which ended August 31, 1986, there was a total of 356 cases added to the docket of the Court of Criminal Appeals. Two hundred and nine of these were cases where discretionary review was granted by the Court and 147 were direct appeals, death penalty appeals, writs of habeas corpus granted, and extraordinary writs. Death penalty appeals in fiscal 1986 numbered 35, compared to 42 in fiscal 1985.

The 356 cases added in fiscal year 1986 represent a decrease of 19.6 percent from the 443 cases added during fiscal year 1985, which ended August 31, 1985.

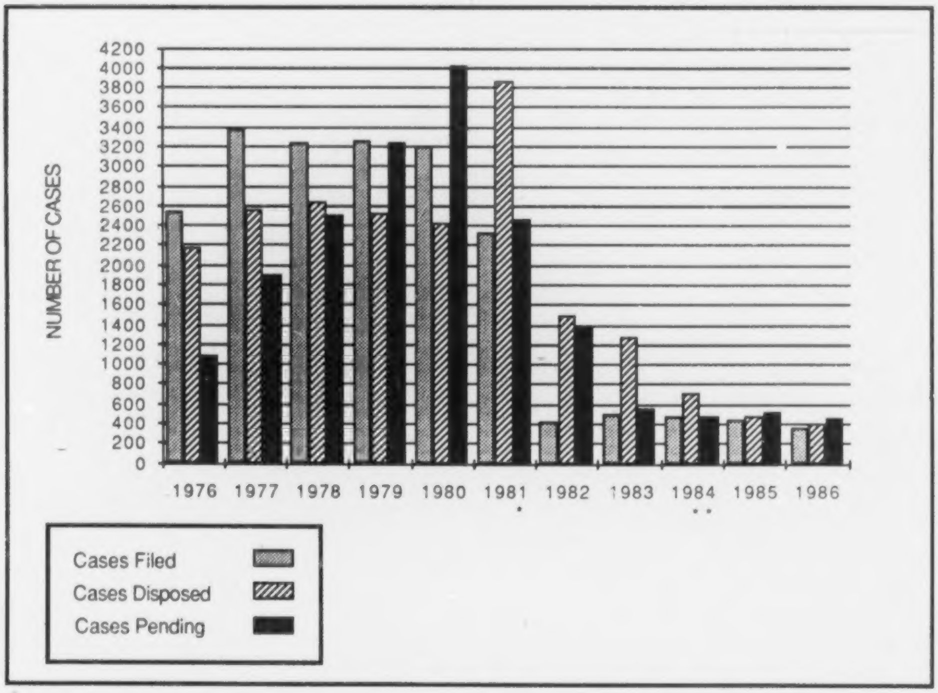
In addition to the cases added:

(1) The Court had 1,360 petitions for discretionary review filed during fiscal 1986, the same number filed during the previous year. Petitions for discretionary review were received from 123 counties during 1986, with 50 percent of them originating from Harris or Dallas Counties;

(2) There were 2,074 applications for writs of habeas corpus filed during fiscal 1986 (a 14.3 percent increase over the 1,815 filed in fiscal 1985); and

(3) 1,193 other motions or applications were handled by the Court (a 4.2 percent increase over 1,145 considered the previous year).

Figure 3.
COURT OF CRIMINAL APPEALS
Cases filed, disposed and pending, calendar year 1976 through fiscal year 1986



* Includes cases transferred to the Courts of Appeals which acquired intermediate appellate-criminal jurisdiction in 1981.

 1984 and following are fiscal years; all previous are calendar years.

Rate of Dispositions Decreases

During fiscal year 1986, the Court disposed of 409 cases considered on their merits, compared to 476 such dispositions in fiscal 1985. In 1986 those 409 dispositions represented 47 percent of all cases on the docket (that is, cases filed during the year or carried over from previous years). In fiscal 1985, this disposition rate was 49 percent.

In fiscal 1986, 1,100 petitions for discretionary review were disposed of, 201 (or 18 percent) of which were granted and the remainder were refused or dismissed. In fiscal 1985, 1,046 petitions for discretionary review were disposed of, 228 (or 22 percent) of which were granted.

There were 1,809 applications for writs of habeas corpus disposed of in fiscal 1986, compared to 1,891 in 1985, a decrease of 4 percent.

Judges of the Court of Criminal Appeals wrote 663 opinions during fiscal 1986, 467 (70 per cent) of which were "deciding" opinions which disposed of cases. The remainder were dissents, concurrences, and opinions on rehearing. Of the deciding opinions, 229 were signed and 238 were per curiam. During 1985, members of the Court wrote 833 opinions, 68 percent of which were deciding opinions.

Total Pending Caseload Increases

On August 31, 1986, there were 2,369 total matters (excluding miscellaneous motions and applications) pending in the Court. This represented an increase of 40 percent over the 1,682 matters pending on September 1, 1985.

On August 31, 1986, there were pending 240 granted discretionary review cases, 817 applications for writs of habeas corpus, 1,098 petitions for discretionary review, and 214 direct appeals, death penalty appeals, granted habeas corpus writs, and extraordinary writs.

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1986

There are 14 Courts of Appeals in Texas which, since September 1, 1981, have heard intermediate appeals in both civil and criminal cases.

Courts of Appeals are located in Fort Worth, Austin, San Antonio, Dallas, Texarkana, Amarillo, El Paso, Beaumont, Waco, Eastland, Tyler, Corpus Christi, and Houston. Houston has two Courts of Appeals. Each court has jurisdiction over a geographical district.

Five of the courts have three justices each. The Dallas Court, with 13 justices, is the largest. There are 80 justices statewide.

Pending Caseloads Reduced Again

For the fourth consecutive year, the 14 Courts of Appeals reduced their total pending caseloads during state fiscal year 1986, which ended August 31, 1986.

The Courts disposed of 8,161 total cases during the year, an average of 102 dispositions (56 criminal and 46 civil) per justice. These dispositions reduced the pending caseload from 5,684 at the beginning of the fiscal year to 5,355 at the end of the year.

From calendar year 1974 through 1982, the total pending caseload of the Courts of Appeals grew larger each year as more cases were added than the courts were able to dispose of. On December 31, 1982, there were 6,816 total cases pending in the Courts of Appeals.

* Caseloads increased sharply in 1981 when Courts of Appeals acquired criminal jurisdiction.

 1984 and following are fiscal years; all previous are calendar years.

The trend was broken in calendar year 1983 when a surge in criminal dispositions reduced the total pending caseload by year's end. In fiscal year 1984, both civil and criminal caseloads were reduced during the year.

In fiscal year 1985, the civil caseload was reduced and the criminal caseload increased slightly. In fiscal year 1986, both pending civil and criminal caseloads were again reduced.

The Courts of Appeals had 3,512 criminal cases and 2,172 civil cases pending as of September 1, 1985. On August 31, 1986, 3,488 criminal cases and 1,867 civil cases were pending. The state average for pending cases at year's end was 67 per justice. This compares to the 1982 high of 86 pending cases per justice.

The largest number of pending cases per justice (82.9) at the end of the fiscal year was in the Fourteenth Court of Appeals in Houston. The lowest number per justice (34.3) was in the Sixth Court in Texarkana.

Filings Remain Virtually Constant

A total of 7,432 cases were filed in the Courts of Appeals during the fiscal year, which included 4,165 criminal cases and 3,267 civil cases. This was a decrease of 0.7 percent from the 7,484 total new cases filed in fiscal year 1985. New criminal cases decreased 0.5 percent from the 4,186 filed in fiscal year 1985 and civil cases decreased 0.9 percent from the 3,298 filed in fiscal year 1985.

Considering civil and criminal cases together, the First Court in Houston had the highest average number of new cases filed per justice (111.4) during fiscal year 1986. The other courts ranged

COURTS OF APPEALS
Workloads and cases transferred, year ending August 31, 1986 down to 49.3 cases per justice filed in the Sixth Court in Texarkana. State average filings were 92.9 per justice.

Approximately 27 percent of all new cases filed in a Court of Appeals in Texas in fiscal year 1985 were filed in one of the two Courts located in Houston. Approximately 18 percent of all cases filed in the State were filed in the Dallas Court of Appeals.

Civil Dispositions Increase

In fiscal year 1986, there were 3,684 civil dispositions by the Courts of Appeal, an increase of 7 percent over 3,453 civil dispositions in fiscal year 1985.

At the end of fiscal year 1986, 1,867 civil cases were pending on the dockets of the Courts of Appeals, 14 percent fewer than the 2,172 pending on September 1, 1985. Of those civil cases pending on August 31, 1986, 56 percent had been on the docket less than 6 months, 34 percent from 6 to 12 months, and 10 percent for more than 12 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a civil case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition ranged from 5.0 months in the Tenth Court of Waco to 11.5 months in the Amarillo Court. The average lapse of time for civil cases statewide was 7.9 months.

A case is "submitted" when the court hears oral argument or when it is referred to the justices for formal consideration if no oral argument is heard. The average lapse of time from the submission of a civil case to the court and its disposition ranged from 1.0 month in the First

Court of Houston to 3.2 months in the San Antonio Court. The average lapse of time for cases statewide was 2.2 months.

Criminal dispositions decreased slightly (1.1 percent) from 4,528 dispositions in fiscal year 1985 to 4,477 dispositions in fiscal year 1986.

Of the 3,488 criminal cases pending in the Courts of Appeals at the end of fiscal year 1986, 50 percent had been on the docket less than 6 months, 37 percent from 6 to 12 months, and 13 percent more than 12 months.

The average lapse of time between the filing of a criminal case in a Court of Appeals and its disposition ranged from 6.0 months in the Eastland Court to 11.8 months in the San Antonio Court. The average lapse of time for cases statewide was 8.6 months.

The average lapse of time between submission of a criminal appeal and its disposition ranged from 0.3 of a month in the Beaumont Court to 2.6 months in the San Antonio Court. The average lapse of time for cases statewide was 1.3 months.

The First Court of Appeals in Houston disposed of the largest total number of cases per justice (121.2) during fiscal year 1986. The lowest number per justice (80.6) was in the Second Court at Fort Worth. State average dispositions were 102.0 per justice.

In fiscal year 1986, the Courts of Appeals wrote 7,741 opinions, 3.0 percent more than the 7,522 written in 1985.

The Courts of Appeals reversed, at least in part, the decision of the trial court in 13 percent of the cases disposed of during fiscal year 1986, compared to 12.6 percent in fiscal year 1985.

While the 14 Courts of Appeals operate to a large extent as autonomous courts in specific geographic districts, some equalization of the dockets occurs by transfer of cases among the courts on order of the Supreme Court, pursuant to statutory authority. The Supreme Court transferred 140 civil cases and 121 criminal cases in fiscal year 1986, compared with 167 civil cases and 187 criminal cases transferred in fiscal year 1985.

DISTRICT COURTS

Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1986

On September 1, 1985, three new district courts were created as a result of legislation passed in 1983 and 1985, making a total of 374 district courts in the state during the year.

The district courts experienced a 2.2 percent decrease in new cases filed during the reporting year, down to 474,133 from 484,834 in 1985. While the number of new criminal cases filed increased 15.5 percent above 1985, civil cases decreased 7.1 percent and juvenile cases decreased 2.2 percent.

Civil cases accounted for 72.7 percent of all new cases filed during the fiscal year. The largest segment of civil cases filed (36.2 percent of new civil filings) were divorce actions. Of the civil cases filed, damages and personal injury cases (including worker's compensation) comprised 13.3 percent, tax cases comprised 11.3 percent, and disputes over debts comprised 15.5 percent.

Juvenile cases (Title 3 of the Texas Family Code) accounted for 2.2 percent of the total cases filed in the district courts.

Criminal cases constituted 25.1 percent of the total new cases filed during the year ending August 31, 1986. Of the criminal cases, 17.4 percent involved a charge of theft (including auto theft), 20.4 percent burglary, 5.9 percent robbery, 1.5 percent homicide (including capital murder), 5.0 percent sexual assault (including sexual assault of a child and of an adult), 3.4 percent felony DWI and 18.4 percent drug offenses. About 3.7 percent of the new filings were misdemeanor cases. About 11 percent of the criminal cases filed in the district court were by information, the remainder were by indictment.

Urban Filings Increase

The number of all categories of cases filed in the ten Texas counties with populations over 210,000 increased 1.8 percent for state fiscal year 1986 over the number of filings during 1985. In all other counties, the number of cases filed decreased 2.8 percent. These ten large-population counties (Harris, Dallas, Bexar, Tarrant, El Paso, Travis, Hidalgo, Nueces, Jefferson, and Lubbock) had approximately 54 percent of the State's population and 58 percent of the total cases filed during the fiscal year.

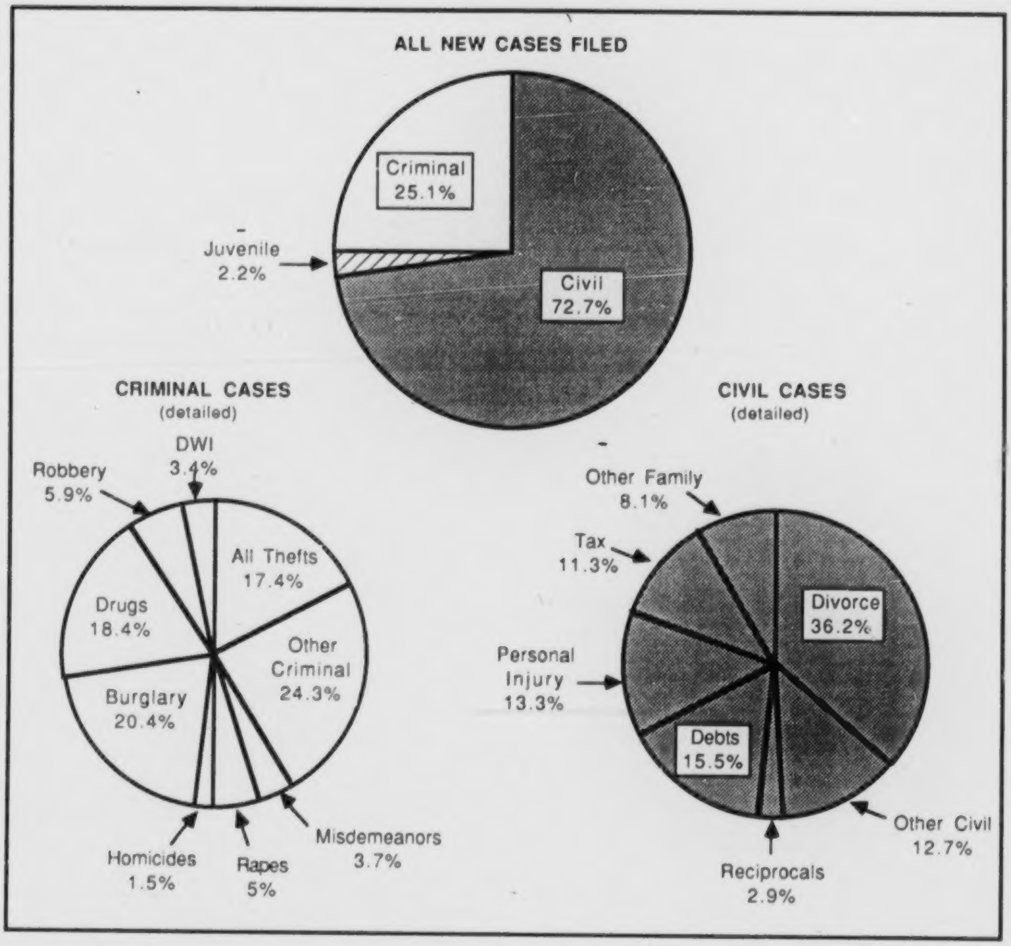
* Activity shown for State Fiscal Year 1986 includes for the first time show cause motions in civil activity, deferred adjudications and shock probations in criminal activity, and motions to revoke probation in criminal and juvenile activity.

 1984 and following are fiscal years; all previous are calendar years.

Figure 8.
DISTRICT COURTS
Categories of new cases filed, year ending August 31, 1986



Total case filings decreased in the counties of Harris (13.2 percent), Jefferson (3.3 percent), and El Paso (0.6 percent). Increases in total filings occurred in the counties of Travis (7.6 percent), Bexar (6.5 percent), Tarrant (5.7 percent), Nueces (4.9 percent), Lubbock (4.6 percent), Hidalgo (3.9 percent), and Dallas (2.8 percent).

New Criminal Filings Increase

New filings in criminal cases increased 20.4 percent in the ten urban counties during fiscal year 1986 as compared to 1985. This compares to an increase of 9.1 percent in criminal filings for all other counties of the State. Criminal filings increased in nine of the ten urban counties: Jefferson County (37.7 percent), Nueces County (37.5 percent), Lubbock County (35.3 percent), Bexar County (25.0 percent), Tarrant County (22.3 percent), Harris (17.5 percent), Travis (16.0 percent), and Dallas (2.5 percent). Criminal cases filed decreased only in El Paso (3.2 percent).

Civil case filings declined 7.6 percent in the most populous counties, and 6.1 percent in the remaining counties of the State. Counties reporting declines in civil filings were: Harris (21.2 percent), Jefferson (11.1 percent), Dallas (5.5 percent), Lubbock (3.6 percent) and Nueces (0.5 percent). Counties reporting increases in civil filings were Travis (5.4 percent), Hidalgo (4.0 percent), Bexar (3.5 percent), and Tarrant (1.0 percent). El Paso reported no significant change.

Percent of Dispositions Increases

During the fiscal year ending August 31, 1986, the district courts of the State disposed of 50.1 percent of the total cases on their dockets (added during the year or carried over from the previous year)--compared to 42.3 in 1985. The district courts in the ten counties with populations over 210,000 disposed of 51.9 percent. In all other counties of the State, 47.8 percent were disposed statewide, 55.5 percent of the criminal cases and 45.9 percent of the civil cases on the dockets were disposed of during the year.

In the ten urban counties the disposition rate of criminal cases averaged 60.5 percent, ranging from 70.0 percent in Dallas County to 43.9 percent in Travis County. The disposition rate of criminal cases in counties under 210,000 averaged 55.5 percent of those on the docket.

Comparable figures for civil cases show an average disposition rate of 49.8 percent in the ten urban counties and 45.9 percent in the rest of the State. The range in the ten urban counties was from 71.0 percent in Jefferson County to 40.4 percent in El Paso County.

An average of 1,625 causes per judge were disposed of during the year. These dispositions include new items counted for the first time this fiscal year. Civil dispositions now include show cause motions disposed in family law cases. Criminal dispositions include those cases where the defendant is placed on deferred adjudiation, where motions to revoke probation are disposed, and where the defendant is placed on shock probation. Juvenile dispositions now include motions to revoke disposed.

Of all civil cases, 28.4 percent were disposed of by non-jury trials. (Approximately 66 percent of these non-jury trials were in divorce cases.) Of the civil cases disposed, 10.9 percent were family law (show cause) dispositions. 22.5 percent were dismissed for want of prosecution, and 14.1 percent were dismissed at the request of the plaintiff.

The defendant entered a plea of guilty in 45.1 percent of the criminal cases disposed. Including these pleas, the defendant was convicted in 47.9 percent of the cases and acquitted in one percent. Ten percent of the criminal dispositions were where the defendant was placed on deferred adjudication. Approximately 21 percent of the criminal cases were disposed of by dismissal. Of those cases dismissed, 13.3 percent were because of insufficient evidence, 13.8 percent were because the case was refiled, and 27.5 percent because the defendant was convicted in another case.

In the cases in which the defendant pleaded not guilty and which were disposed of by jury verdicts, the defendant was found guilty in 83.2 percent of the cases and was acquitted in 16.8 percent. In trials before the judge alone on not-guilty pleas, convictions resulted in 59.6 percent of the cases and acquittals in 40.4 percent. The defendant was convicted of a lesser offense than that originally filed in 12.8 percent of the cases resulting in convictions.

Among the criminal cases, the highest rate for disposition by conviction was the category of felony driving while intoxicated (DWI) with 64.1 percent by convictions. The highest rate of disposition by dismissal was of cases of sexual assault of an adult (34.0 percent). The lowest rate of dismissal was for felony DWI (10.5 percent).

In previous years deferred adjudications were carried on the pending docket and counted as dismissals if the defendant completed the prescribed time period without incident. Beginning this fiscal year, placing defendants on deferred adjudication is a separate category of disposition. Of the categories of cases where the defendant was placed on deferred adjudication, drug possession was the highest with 15.1 percent and felony DWI the lowest with 1.2 percent.

Motions to revoke disposed, another new category, accounted for 15.6 percent of dispositions.

Death Sentences Imposed

Thirty-five death sentences (compared to 32 in 1985) and 378 life sentences were assessed in the district courts during the year ending August 31, 1986. Of the criminal cases disposed by the district courts of Texas, 36.1 percent were disposed of in a period of less than two months from the date of indictment or information, 13.6 percent took two to three months, 10.3 percent took three to four months, and 40.0 percent took over four months.

Of the juvenile cases handled by the district courts, a finding of delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (CINS) was entered in 59.8 percent of the cases disposed. The juvenile was found not to have engaged in the proscribed conduct in 1.4 percent.

District courts handled 2.1 percent less divorce actions during 1986 than during 1985. During the fiscal year, 139,265 divorce cases were disposed of--30.6 percent of all civil (non-juvenile) cases handled by district courts. Some 23.7 percent of divorce cases were dismissed.

Tax cases tend to stay on the docket for long periods of time compared to other categories of cases. This fiscal year, 35.3 percent of the tax cases filed during the year or carried over from the previous year were disposed of by the district courts as opposed to 19.6 percent in fiscal year 1985. Over 77 percent of tax case dispositions were either dismissed for want of prosecution or by the plaintiff.

District courts disposed of 14.2 percent more personal injury-type cases during 1986 than during 1985. More than 30 percent of the personal injury-type cases ended in agreed judgments, and 21.4 percent were dismissed by the plaintiff.

Of the 455,849 civil dispositions during the year ending August 31, 1986, the courts disposed of 24.6 percent of the cases in under three months, 15.9 percent in three to six months, 17.1 percent in six to twelve months, 10.1 percent in 12 to 18 months, and 32.2 percent took over 18 months.

The total number of cases pending in the district courts on August 31, 1986--605,556--was 5.4 percent less than the 639,848 pending on September 1, 1985. New categories have been included in the civil pending figures. Family matters other than divorces or reciprocals were added (42,485 cases pending August 31, 1986). Including these cases, civil cases pending decreased by 7.1 percent.

Criminal cases pending increased 3.1 percent. New categories were added: deferred adjudications are now counted as dispositive as are motions to revoke probation (granted or denied) and placements on shock probation.

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS
Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1986

The county clerk in each of the 254 counties of Texas is supplied forms by the Judicial Council for reporting the judicial activity in the county-level courts ("constitutional" county courts, county courts at law, probate courts, etc.). For for the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1986, the clerks in all 254 counties reported activity all twelve months, for a 100 percent reporting rate.

Looking at numbers of cases, criminal cases constituted 71.3 percent (467,375) of the 655,648 new cases filed or appealed from lower courts. Civil cases accounted for 16.9 percent (111,107), probate cases represented 8.2 percent (53,757), and mental health cases (a category counted for the first time this fiscal year) represented 3.1 percent (20,621). New juvenile cases filed were less than 0.4 percent of the total.

DWI Cases Top Criminal Dockets

Concerning the criminal cases only, 27.7 percent of those filed in or appealed to the county-level courts were for driving while intoxicated or under the influence of drugs (DWI/DUID), 17.4 percent were for theft, 6.1 percent for violations of drug laws, 16.5 percent for traffic offenses, 2.7 percent for simple assault, and 29.7 percent were for other criminal offenses.

Again concerning criminal cases only, 20.3 percent of the cases added to the county-level court dockets came by way of appeal from justice of the peace or municipal courts rather than being filed originally in the county-level courts or added in another manner.

Debt Suits Dominate Civil Dockets

Of the civil cases filed in or appealed to the county-level courts during the year ending August 31, 1986, 58.4 percent were classified as suits on debt, 8.9 percent concerned personal injury/damage suits, 3.2 percent were divorce suits, 2.9 percent were tax suits, less than one percent concerned other family matters, and 25.7 percent were other civil cases.

During the twelve-month reporting period, the county-level courts of the State disposed of 48.8 percent of the 1,161,492 total criminal, civil, and juvenile cases on their dockets (added during the year or carried over from the previous year). No statistics on the disposition of probate or mental health cases are recorded. The disposition rate was highest for juvenile cases (64 percent). Fifty-one percent of the criminal cases on the docket were disposed of as were 42 percent of the civil cases. Within the category of criminal cases on the docket, 62.6 percent of the drug charges, 56.5 percent of the DWI/DUID charges, 38.1 percent of theft charges, 53.1 percent of assault charges, 49.7 percent of traffic cases, and 55.1 percent of other criminal cases were disposed.

JUVENILE COURT ACTIVITY
Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1986

Section 51.04 of the Texas Family Code provides for the designation of a court or courts in each county as the juvenile court, to hear proceedings under Title 3 of the Family Code. The court designated must be either a district court, criminal district court, county court at law, or constitutional county court. The designation is to be made by the juvenile board in each county, or if there is none, by the judges of the above-mentioned types of courts in the county.

The total statewide activity indicates that during the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1986, about 81 percent of the juvenile cases in the State were handled by district courts and 19 percent were handled by county-level courts (county courts at law or constitutional county courts).

Juvenile Dispositions Increase 6.0%

Statewide, 13,341 new juvenile cases were filed during fiscal year 1986. Motions to revoke probation, a category counted for the first time this fiscal year, totaled 1,899. Of the new filings, 12,242 were for allegations of delinquent conduct and 1,099 were for allegations of conduct indicating a need for supervision. The courts disposed of 15,436 cases--6.0 percent more than in 1985.

Findings of delinquent conduct of conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) were entered in 60.3 percent of the dispositions. Findings of no delinquent conduct or no conduct indicating a need for supervision were entered in 1.8 percent. Less than 29 percent of dispositions were dismissed or otherwise disposed of (including change of venue transfers) and less than one percent of dispositions were on motions to revoke.

Juvenile Probations Increase

Of those children found to be delinquent or in need of supervision, 94.5 percent were placed on formal probation, as compared to 80.2 percent in 1985. Where probations were granted, 7,051 (or 80.2 percent) of the children were placed in the care of their parents; 1,603 (or 18.3 percent) were placed in residential care facilities; and 138 (or 1.5 percent) were placed with foster parents.

Children found to be delinquent were ordered confined to a Texas Youth Commission facility in 18.3 percent of the cases.

During fiscal year 1986, 163 children were certified to be tried as adults, down from 234 children in 1985.

Other actions taken by juvenile courts during the fiscal year included the holding of 15,812 detention hearings and 824 hearings on motions to modify court orders.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS
Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1986

The Judicial Council determined from various sources that there were 968 justices of the peace in Texas during the state fiscal year ending August 31, 1986. Each justice was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Council on activity in that court. Statewide, the Council received 8,557 reports out of a possible 11,616 for the year (a 74 percent reporting rate).

Two-Thirds of Filings are Traffic Cases

Criminal misdemeanor cases comprised 89 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. Of these misdemeanor filings, 73 percent were traffic cases (2/3 of all cases filed). During the fiscal year, 1,533,174 traffic cases were reported filed. Non-traffic criminal cases comprised 27 percent of the criminal cases filed. Civil cases provided 11 percent of the new cases filed. Twenty percent of all civil filings were small claims suits, 41 percent were forcible entry and detainer suits, and 39 percent were other civil actions.

In addition to cases filed, the reporting courts held 8,830 hearings to determine if a peace bond should be issued. In their capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting justices of the peace accepted 54,887 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 54,429 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). There were 2,854 examining trials held (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) and 12,791 inquests conducted. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 36,502. Also, 5,349 search warrants were issued, and 114,580 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warnings. Emergency mental commitment hearings were conducted on 4,897 occasions, and 12,900 matters relating to juveniles were undertaken.

Justices of the peace reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those granted after completing defensive driving or deferred disposition), and at trial. Seventy-five percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 15 percent at trial, and 10 percent were dismissed after the defendant completed a defensive driving course or a period of deferred disposition.

Looking at traffic cases only, 14 percent were dismissed and 7 percent were disposed of by trial. The remaining 79 percent were disposed of prior to trial, 99 percent of those by payment of fine. Of the 7 percent that went to trial, 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the remaining cases were tried before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 93 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 78 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

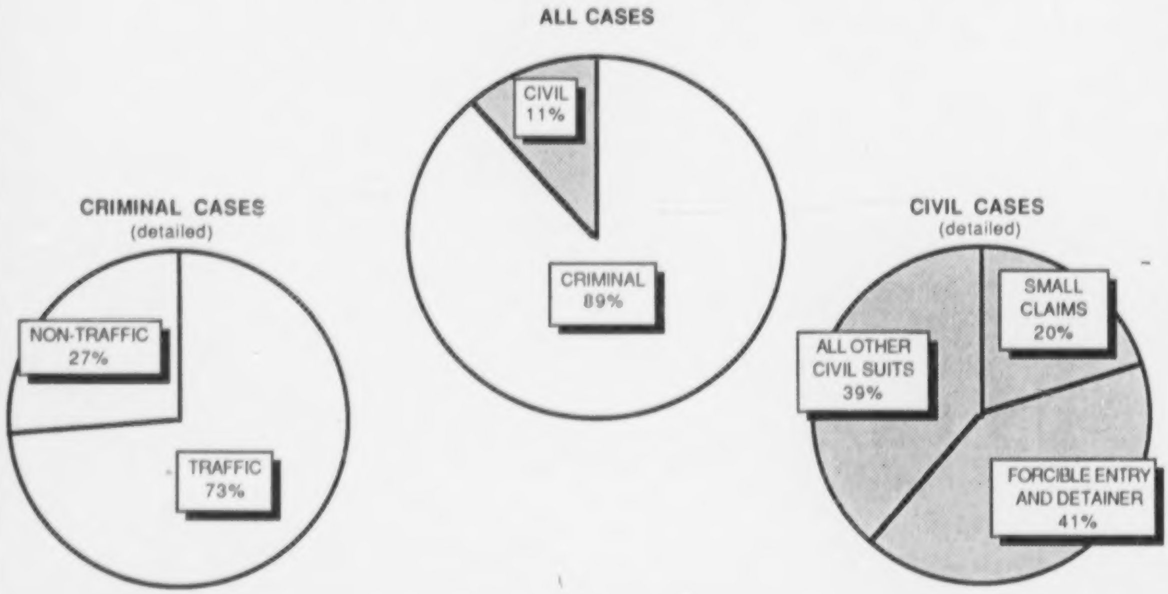

Figure 14.
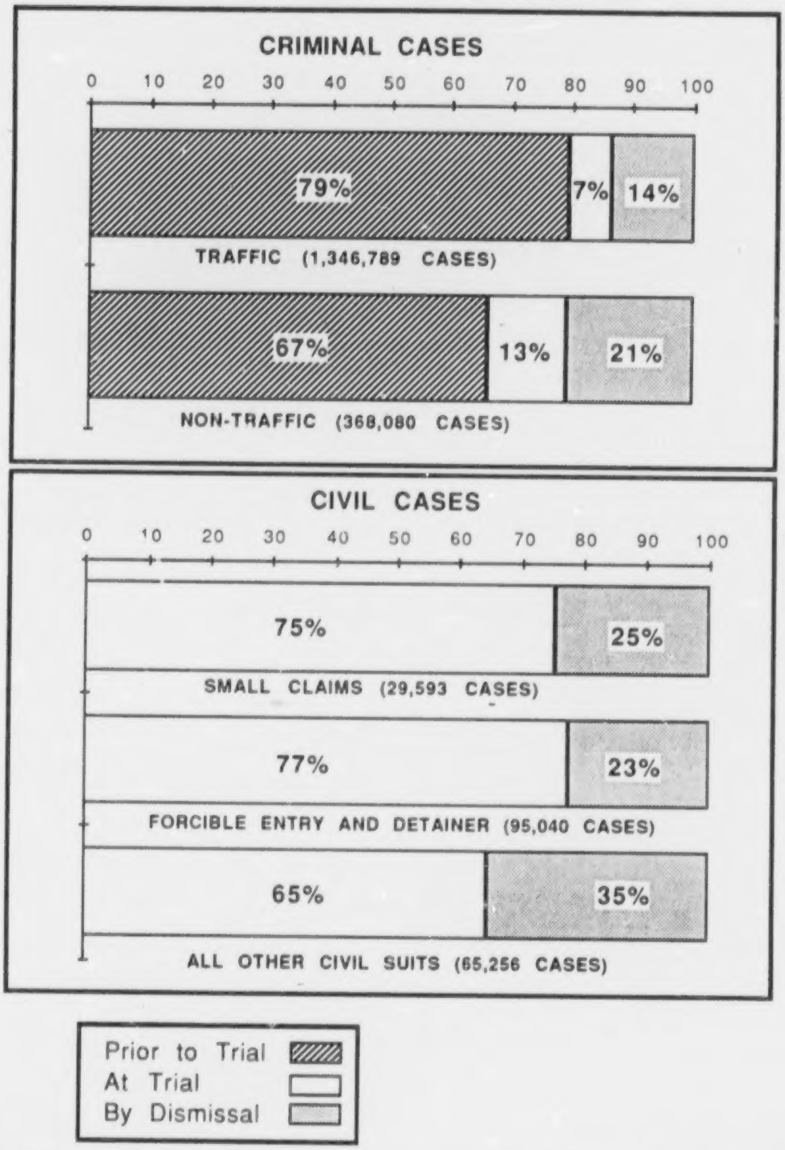
JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS
Types of dispositions of cases, year ending August 31, 1986



Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 88 percent were disposed of prior to trial. Thirteen percent went to trial. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 90 percent of the trials before a judge alone and in 61 percent of the jury trials.

A much higher percentage (73 percent) of all civil suits went to trial than did criminal cases (7 percent). Twenty-seven percent of the civil suits were dismissed before trial. Of the cases that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge alone and the remainder before a jury.

The courts reported the disposition of 1,904,758 cases, which is 81 percent of the 2,352,194 filed. Appeals were filed in 21,681 cases tried in the justice of the peace courts, or about one percent of the cases disposed.

Reported Revenues Top $81 Million

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during the year ending August 31, 1986, was $81,637,141. This revenue becomes part of the treasury of the county where the court is located except for a court cost on each case which is remitted to special funds of the State.

Finally, justices of the peace reported holding 126,628 conferences prior to any legal action being filed in their courts. These conferences resulted in 63,146 causes not being filed as formal cases.

JUSTICE OF THE PEACE COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

1. Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all class C misdemeanor violations of the traffic laws of Texas and other violations of laws relating to the operation or ownership of a motor vehicle (for example, Speeding, Stop Sign, Red Light, Inspection Sticker, Driver's License, Registration, etc.). Maximum punishment is by fine only, not to exceed $200.

2. Non-Traffic Misdemeanors. This category includes all other class C misdemeanor criminal violations usually found in the Penal Code of Texas and associated state laws (for example, Public Intoxication, Disorderly Conduct, Assault, Theft under $20, Parks and Wildlife Violations, etc.). Maximum punishment is by fine only, not to exceed $200.

3. Small Claims Suits. This category includes all suits for the recovery of money (damages or debt up to $1,000) brought to the justice of the peace as judge of the Small Claims Court in accordance with Tex. Gov't Code Ann. ch. 28 (Vernon Pamph. 1986).

4. Forcible Entry and Detainer. This category includes all suits for forcible entry and detainer (recovery of possession of premises) brought under authority of Tex. Gov't Code Ann. sec. 27.031 (Vernon Pamph. 1986), Tx. Prop. Code Ann. secs. 24.001-24.008, (Vernon Supp. 1986), and Tex. R. Civ. P. 738-755.

5. Other Civil Suits. This category includes all other suits within the civil jurisdiction of the justice of the peace court, including those for recovery of money (damages or debt up to $1,000) and for foreclosure of mortgages and of liens upon or for possession of personal property in cases in which the amount in controversy is otherwise within the justice court's jurisdiction in accordance with Tex. Gov't Code Ann. sec. 27.031.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

It is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts, as not all of these courts have submitted reports on the activity of their courts to this office.

One final caution: Because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of the court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

MUNICIPAL COURTS
Analysis of Activity for the Year Ending August 31, 1986

Each of the 846 municipal courts operating in Texas cities during the year ending August 31, 1986, was asked to submit a one-page monthly report to the Texas Judicial Council on activity in the court. Statewide the Council received 7,670 reports out of a possible 10,152 for the year (76 percent).

Traffic Cases Dominate Dockets

Traffic cases comprised 91 percent of the cases filed in the reporting courts. A total of 5,956,593 traffic cases were filed in these courts during the year. Non-traffic criminal cases accounted for the other 9 percent of the cases filed.

Of new traffic cases filed, 65 percent were for non-parking violations with the remaining 35 percent for parking-related offenses. Seventy-seven percent of non-traffic cases filed were for state law violations with 23 percent related to local ordinances.

In the municipal judges' capacity as a state magistrate, the reporting judges accepted 46,809 complaints within the jurisdiction of the county courts and 21,271 within the jurisdiction of the district courts (felonies). A total of 297 examining trials (preliminary hearings of district or county court cases) were held, and 223 inquests were conducted by municipal judges. Drivers license suspension hearings totaled 8,071. There were 17,205 search warrants issued, 726,791 arrest warrants issued, and 88,866 defendants charged with county or district court offenses were given statutory warings. In addition, 561 emergency mental commitment hearings were held and 5,916 matters relating to juveniles were conducted.

Municipal courts reported the disposition of cases in two major categories: prior to trial, including dismissals (other than those dismissed after completing a defensive driving course), and at trial. Eighty percent of all cases were disposed of before trial, 11 percent at trial (after appearance before the judge) and 9 percent were defensive driving dismissals, dismissals following completion of deferred disposition, or dismissals following proof of financial responsibility.

MUNICIPAL COURTS

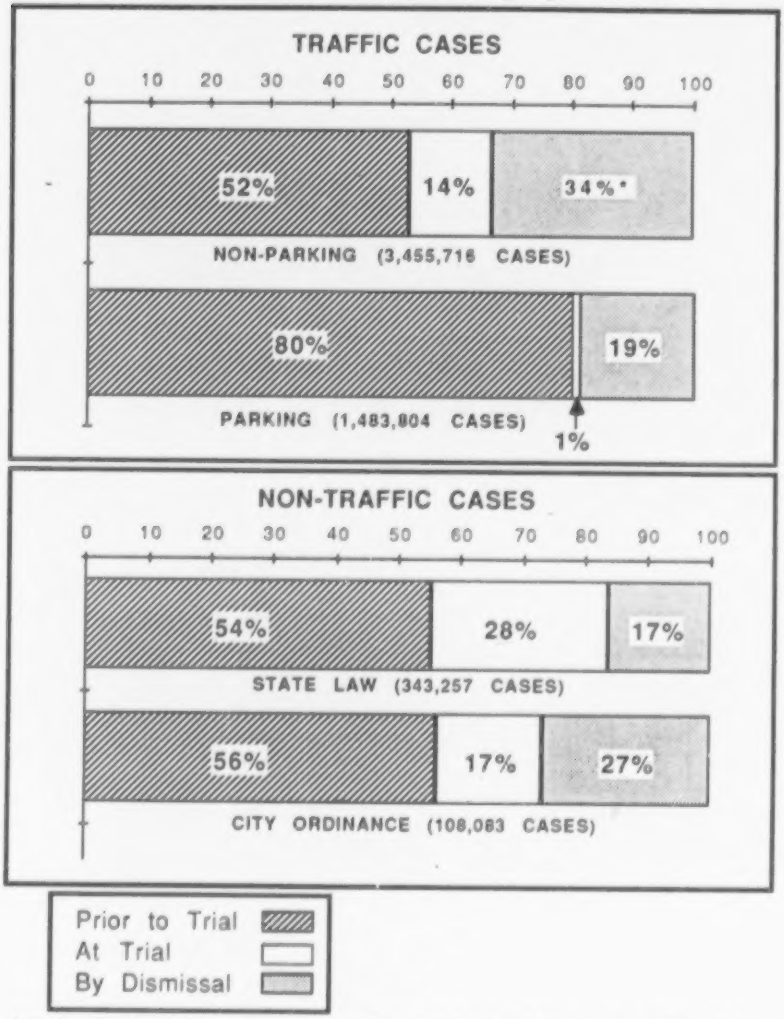
Types of dispositions of cases, year ending August 31, 1986



* Includes dismissals for completing an approved defensive driving course (23% of all dismissals) and dismissals after proof of financial responsibility (15% of all dismissals).

Looking at traffic cases only, 81 percent were disposed of prior to trial (73 percent of the non-parking and 99 percent of the parking). Nine percent of the traffic cases were dismissed after defensive driving, deferred disposition, or proof of financial responsibility. Of the 10 percent that went to trial, more than 99 percent of the cases were tried before the judge alone and the rest before a jury. When traffic cases went to trial, the defendant was found guilty in 84 percent of the cases tried before the judge alone and in 55 percent of the cases tried before a jury.

Concerning non-traffic criminal cases, 73 percent were disposed of prior to trial (70 percent of the state law violations and 81 percent of those relating to city ordinances), 26 percent were disposed of at trial, and 1.4 percent were dismissed after deferred disposition. Of those that went to trial, 99 percent were before the judge without a jury. Guilty findings were made in 89 percent of the trials before the judge alone and in 54 percent of the jury trials.

The courts reported disposing of 5,390,860 cases, which is 82 percent of the 6,568,216 filed. Of the convictions, 73,856 cases were appealed from the municipal courts, a little more than 1.4 percent of the total cases disposed.

Reported Revenues Top $156 Million

Total revenue collected by the reporting courts during the year ending August 31, 1986, was $156,898,690. This revenue becomes a part of the treasury of the city in which the court has jurisdiction except for a court cost on each case which is remitted to the special funds of the State.

Ordinance violations involving litter, fire safety, zoning, public health, and sanitation, are punishable by fines only, up to a maximum of $1,000. Punishment for violation of other types of city ordinances is limited to fines only, not to exceed $200.

CAUTIONARY STATEMENT

Perhaps more caution should be used in drawing general conclusions from court statistics than from statistics on other subjects. The included data do not attempt to portray everything courts or judges do, or how much time is spent on court-related activities not represented by these court statistics.

Particularly the county court judges, justices of the peace, and municipal court judges spend a large amount of time counseling with the people in their communities, and as a result of this counseling, many cases are not filed. In addition, as a result of their official position, many of these judges have non-judicial responsibilities in the community which are not reflected in these statistics.

It is important to note that reported totals for justice of the peace and municipal courts do not reflect 100% of the activity of those courts, as not all of these courts have submitted reports on the activity of their courts to this office.

One final caution: Because of the large number of courts in Texas and the huge volume of court activity, reporting errors are bound to occur. The staff of the Texas Judicial Council and the clerks of the court work closely to keep such reporting errors to a minimum. When errors are found after publication of an Annual Report, adjustments are made in pending case figures at the beginning of the following year.

DISTRICT COURTS: DETAILED ACTIVITY:

K. Cecile Bogan

DALLAS COUNTY COURTHOUSE
DALLAS, TEXAS

DISTRICT COURTS
Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per indictment or information. For example, if an indictment names more than one defendant, there is more than one case; three defendants named in one indictment equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one indictment, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four indictments equals four cases.

Finally, if an indictment contains more than one count (Art. 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the indictment is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

1. CAPITAL MURDER: An offense under Penal Code Section 19.03 (Capital Murder).

2. MURDER OR VOLUNTARY MANSLAUGHTER: An offense under Penal Code Sections 19.02 (Murder) or 19.04 (Voluntary Manslaughter).

3. ASSAULT OR ATTEMPTED MURDER: A felony offense under Penal Code Section 22.01 (Assault) or 22.04 (Injury to a Child or Elder); an offense under Section 22.02 (Aggravated Assault) or 22.03 (Deadly Assault on a Peace Officer); or an offense of attempt (as defined in Section 15.01) to commit: Murder (19.02), Capital Murder (19.03), or Voluntary Manslaughter (19.04).

4. SEXUAL ASSAULT OF AN ADULT: An offense under Penal Code Sections 22.011 (Sexual Assault) or 22.021 (Aggravated Sexual Assault) where the vitim is an adult (17 years or older);and any offense, where the victim is an adult, under old Penal Code Sections 21.02 (Rape), 21.03 (Aggravated Rape), 21.04 (Sexual Abuse), and 21.05 (Aggravated Sexual Abuse).

5. INDECENCY OR SEXUAL ASSAULT OF A CHILD: An offense under Penal Code Sections 22.011 (Sexual Assault) or 22.021 (Aggravated Sexual Assault) where the victim is a child (younger than 17 years), and an offense under 21.11 (Indecency with a Child); and an offense under old Penal Code Sections 21.09 (Rape of a Child), or, if the victim is younger than 17 years, an offense under old Section 21.05 (Aggravated Sexual Abuse).

6. ROBBERY: An offense under Penal Code Sections 29.02 (Robbery) or 29.03 (Aggravated Robbery).

7. BURGLARY: A felony offense under Penal Code Sections 30.02 (Burglary) or 30.04 (Burglary of Vehicles).

8. THEFT: A felony offense under Penal Code Sections 31.03 (Theft) or 31.04 (Theft of Service) except when the property involved is a motor vehicle; and an offense under Penal Code Sections 32.21 (Credit Card Abuse) and 32.50 (Debit Card Abuse).

9. AUTOMOBILE THEFT: A felony offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) if the property involved is motor vehicle, or an offense under Section 31.07 (Unauthorized Use of a Vehicle).

12. DRUG POSSESSION: A felony offense for possession under the controlled substances Act (Art. 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drugs Act (Art. 4476-14), other than possession with intent to deliver or sell.

13. FELONY D.W.I.: A felony offense under Art. 6701L-1, V.T.C.S.

14. OTHER FELONY: A felony offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories, including cases previously categorized as forgery.

15. ALL MISDEMEANORS: Any offense classified as a misdemeanor.

9. ALL OTHER FAMILY LAW MATTERS: Includes all family law matters other than divorce proceedings and those juvenile matters which are reported in the Juvenile Section, including:

   a. Motions to modify previously granted divorce decrees, or other judgments or decrees, in such matters as amount of child support, child custody orders, and other similar motions which are filed under the original cause number;
   b. Annulments;
   c. Adoptions;
   d. Changes of name;
   e. Termination of parental rights (child protective service cases);
   f. Dependent and neglected child cases;

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS: DETAILED ACTIVITY

K. Cecile Bagan

SUTTON COUNTY COURTHOUSE
SONORA, TEXAS

COUNTY-LEVEL COURTS

Explanation of Case Categories

CRIMINAL DOCKET

A criminal case is defined as one defendant per information. For example, if an information names more than one defendant, there is more than one case: three defendants named in one information equals three cases. If the same defendant receives more than one information, even if for the same criminal episode, there is more than one case: the same person named in four information equals four cases.

Finally, if an information contains more than one count (Art. 21.24, C.C.P.) only one case per person named in the information is reported. The case is reported under the classification for the most serious offense alleged.

The case-type categories are:

1. D.W.I. OR D.U.I.D.: An offense under Art. 6701L-1, V.T.C.S., (Driving While Intoxicated or Art. 6701d, Section 50, V.T.C.S., (Driving Under the Influence of Drugs).

2. THEFT OR WORTHLESS CHECKS: An offense under Penal Code Section 31.03 (Theft) or Section 31.04 (Theft of Service) or any offense of theft or theft of service if the defendant obtained property or secured performance of service by issuing or passing a check or similar sight order for the payment of money, when the issuer did not have sufficient funds in or on deposit with the bank or other drawer for the payment in full of the check or order as well as all other checks or orders then outstanding (Section 31.06, P.C.). Also included are apeals of cases brought under Penal Code Section 32.41--Issuance of Bad Checks.

3. DRUG OFFENSES: An offense under the Controlled Substances Act (Art. 4476-15, V.T.C.S.) or the Dangerous Drug Act (Art. 4476-14).

4. ASSAULT: An offense under Penal Code 22.01 (Assault) or 22.05 (Reckless Conduct).

5. TRAFFIC: Violations of the provisions of Art. 6701d, V.T.C.S. (Uniform Act Regulating Traffic on Highways) and related statutes, except D.W.I. (Art. 6701L-1) and D.U.I.D. (Art. 6701d, Section 50).

6. OTHER CRIMINAL: An offense not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

CIVIL DOCKET

A civil case, as opposed to a criminal case, is not dependent on the number of persons involved in a suit. Each separate suit normally commenced by the filing of the plaintiff's original petition, defines an individual civil case.

The case-type categories are:

1. INJURY OR DAMAGE INVOLVING MOTOR VEHICLE: All cases for damages associated in any way with a motor vehicle (automobile, truck, motorcycle, etc.), with or without accompanying personal injury. Examples include personal injury, property damage, and wrongful death cases. Any type of driver's license suspension case, however, is not included in this category.

2. INJURY OR DAMAGE OTHER THAN MOTOR VEHICLE: Cases for personal injury or damages not arising out of an event involving a motor vehicle. Examples include "slip-and-fall" cases.

3. TAX CASES: Suits brought by governmental taxing entities for the collection of taxes.

4. SUITS ON DEBT: Suits based on enforcing the terms of a certain and express agreement, usually for the purpose of recovering a specific sum of money.

5. DIVORCE: (Applicable only for some County Courts at Law.) Suits brought by a party to a marriage to dissolve that marriage pursuant to Family Code Chapter 3. (Annulments are not reported here, but under Other Civil.)

6. ALL OTHER FAMILY LAW MATTERS: This category includes all family law matters other than divorce proceedings and those juvenile matters which are reported in the Juvenile Section, including:
   a. Motions to modify previously granted divorce decrees, or other judgments or decrees, in such matters as amount of child support, child custody orders, and other similar motions which are filed under the original cause number;
   b. Annulments;
   c. Adoptions;
   d. Changes of name;
   e. Termination of parental rights (child protective service cases);
   f. Dependent and neglected child cases;
   g. Removal of disability of minority;
   h. Removal of disability of minority for marriage;
   i. Voluntary legitimation (Section 13.01, Texas Family Code); and
   j. All other matters filed under the Family Code which are not reported elsewhere.

7. OTHER CIVIL: All civil cases not clearly identifiable as belonging in one of the preceding categories.

JUVENILE DOCKET

Juvenile cases are based upon petitions for adjudication of a child alleged to have engaged in delinquent conduct or conduct indicating a need for supervision (C.I.N.S.) as governed by Title 3 of the Texas Family Code.

PROBATE AND MENTAL

Probate Causes are governed by the Texas Probate Code. These include matters involving the probate of wills, the administration of estates, and guardianships. A single probate cause may involve more than one person.

Mental Health Causes are governed by the Revised Texas Mental Health Code and other mental health statutes. These include the commitment of mentally ill or alcoholic persons.

RULE 3. COUNCIL OF PRESIDING JUDGES.

a. There is hereby created the Council of Presiding Judges, composed of the Chief Justice as chairman and the nine presiding judges of the administrative regions.

b. The Chief Justice shall call and preside over an annual meeting of the Council on a date and at a time and place in the State designated by the Chief Justice.

c. The Chief Justice may call and convene additional meetings of the Council that he considers necessary for the promotion of the orderly and efficient administration of justice.

d. At the will of the Chief Justice, the Council may choose one of its members to serve as chairman, who will serve for a period of two years.

e. At the meetings, the Council shall:

(1) study the condition of the dockets of the courts of the State to determine the existence of:
   (a) a significant increase in the number of new cases filed;
   (b) a disposition rate below the state average;
   (c) fewer cases disposed of than new cases filed;
   (d) an excessive number of cases pending on the docket for a lengthy period of time:

f. The Office of Court Administration shall provide the necessary staff support for the operation of the Council and at the direction of the Chief Justice shall provide the Council with information concerning the operation of the courts of this state.

RULE 4. COUNCIL OF JUDGES.

b. The Presiding Judge shall call at least two meetings each year of the Council of Judges of the administrative region at a time and place designated by the Presiding Judge.

c. One of the meetings shall be held within the administrative region for consultation and counseling on the state of the dockets and the civil and criminal business in the district and statutory county courts of the administrative region and arranging for the disposition of the cases and other business pending on the court dockets. At the meeting, the Council shall study and act upon the matters listed in Rule 3.e. and such other matters as may be presented to the meeting by the judges in attendance.

d. The Council of Judges shall adopt rules for the administration of the affairs of the district and statutory county courts within the administrative region, including, but not limited to, rules for:
